

Only 8 To 10 Votes Seen Against It

Swift Approval By Senate Expected Today Of U.S.-Japan Security Pact

WASHINGTON (AP) — Swift and overwhelming Senate approval of the new 10-year security pact between the United States and Japan seemed assured today.

A vote on the treaty was deferred unexpectedly Tuesday night after about 6½ hours of debate. But leaders said it was simply a case of senators being tired and wanting to go home.

Agreement was reached to vote after an additional half hour of debate at today's session.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Senate Republican leader, said he thought no more than 8 to 10 votes would be cast against the treaty.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said in a separate interview that there might be 10 to 12 opposition votes.

A two-thirds majority vote is required to ratify a treaty. Following Senate ratification, only President Eisenhower's signature and an exchange of ratification documents with Japan are needed to make the treaty effective.

Plans called for flying the U.S. documents to Hawaii, where Eisenhower is now resting en route home from his Far Eastern tour.

Japan completed the last of the preliminary formalities early today as Emperor Hirohito put the imperial seal to the treaty soon after Premier Nobusuke Kishi's Cabinet had given it final approval.

The 10-year treaty replaces one signed with Japan in 1951. It is designed to give the Japanese more status of an equal ally rather than a conquered power.

One year's notice after the 10-year period is required to make changes in the treaty's terms.

Japan's defense in case of attack, and relinquishes a former right to crush internal disorder in Japan. It also agrees to consult with the Japanese government before making any changes in its armed forces, weapons or bases there and before deploying Japanese American forces anywhere in Asia.

It retains for the life of the treaty the right to maintain military bases in Japan, but gives up its veto power over letting a third nation have bases in Japan.

Crucible Sets Vacation Pay Of $1,384,985

Checks To Be Issued June 30 To Eligible Hourly-Pay Workers

Approximately $1,384,985 in 1960 vacation pay will be paid to currently eligible hourly-paid production and maintenance employees Thursday, June 30, from 6 a. m. to 4:45 p. m., at the Midland Works, the Crucible Steel Co. announced today.

Checks will be issued at the regular pay office at the subway entrance to the Midland plant, except for those who work at National Drawn in East Liverpool, who will receive checks at their plant.

Vacation pay stubs will be issued to employees actively employed by each department, beginning tomorrow through Tuesday.

The cashier's office in the main office building on Midland Ave. will pay out vacation checks during regular hours, 8 a. m. to 5 p. m. Monday through Friday, beginning Friday, July 1 for the convenience of those who were unable to receive pay at the subway. The main office will be closed July 4.

Employees who become eligible for vacation pay, due to anniversary dates after July 1, 1960, will be paid in the pay period following that in which they become eligible.

Midland banks will observe their regular hours June 30. Last year's vacation pay amounted to about $1,444,700.

Crucible's issuance will raise to $1,831,881 the total "summer melon" Tri-State employees are cutting this year.

Some 10 ceramic industries in the East Liverpool area announced earlier they are issuing $446,900 to 3,847 workers.

There was no estimate of the number of Crucible employees receiving vacation checks, although it probably exceeds 5,000.

President's Wife Back At White House

In Pact Opposition

Leftists' Rioting In Tokyo Fizzles

TOKYO (AP) — An 11th-hour leftist demonstration to stave off activation of the U.S.-Japan security pact lost steam tonight as a mob of 40,000 began wearily dispersing.

The snake-dancing columns shouted "Down with Kishi" and "Dissolve Parliament" as they circled the Parliament building and thundered past the Foreign Ministry and Tokyo police headquarters after a morning of short strikes. But a predicted turnout of 100,000 failed to materialize, and by nightfall the demonstration apparently had fizzled.

The controversial pact, which gives the United States bases in Japan for another 10 years and promises American defense of this former enemy nation against outside attack, needed only U.S. Senate approval and the exchange of ratification instruments to become law.

The exchange of documents in Tokyo is expected to come within hours after the Senate approval and President Eisenhower's signature in Honolulu.

Plans for delivery of the ratification documents were surrounded with secrecy in an effort to thwart the desperate leftist opponents of the treaty. Students, laborers and Socialists were reported planning to blockade U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II and Foreign Minister Aichihiro Fujiyama in their homes to prevent them getting together to complete the formalities.

Premier Nobusuke Kishi's Cabinet put its final approval to the pact late Tuesday night, and Emperor Hirohito affixed the great imperial seal to it soon after. To prevent leftist interference, the documents were taken secretly to each Cabinet member individually and then to the Emperor.

Extremist students and labor unions staged a giant transport strike which tied up the nation's rail, bus and streetcar communications for four hours this morning.

Government workers carried out a four-hour sitdown in front of their offices in Tokyo, and coal miners left the pits for 24 hours. Many stores closed in support of the leftist campaign.

The leftists demanded that Kishi resign and dissolve Parliament to prevent the exchange of the treaty ratifications and force a general election in which the alliance with the United States would be the chief issue.

Reports To Nation Next Week

Ike Seen Mapping Jabs At Red China About Tour

HONOLULU (AP) — President Eisenhower was reported today to be planning to hit back at Red China claims that his Far Eastern tour was an ignominious failure.

The President's rebuttal and a contention that much good was accomplished despite cancellation of his visit to Japan will come, it was understood, when he reports to the American people next week.

Eisenhower will make a nationwide television-radio address within a few days after returning to Washington. Present indications are he will arrive there Saturday or Sunday.

Announcement of the President's plans to go on the air was made by White House Secretary James C. Hagerty as Eisenhower, who arrived in Hawaii from the Orient Monday, continued to relax in glorious weather. He arranged to play another round of golf today.

The President talked over his Far Eastern journey by telephone Tuesday with Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, in Washington.

After the 25-minute conversation, Hagerty reported that both Eisenhower and Herter feel that the President's visit to the Philippines, Nationalist China and Korea were completely successful.

The trip to the Japanese capital was canceled because of what Eisenhower and Premier Nobusuke Kishi called Communist-promoted rioting in Tokyo.

Saying he had not seen a complete account, Hagerty declined comment on Herter telling a congressional committee that the administration had misjudged the riotous situation which led to can-

Budget Chief Asks Curb On Big Spending

Explains Ike's 1961 Fund Program May Become Unbalanced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maurice Stans, the man who counts the billions in the nation's budget, has pleaded with Congress to lay off big pending programs.

President Eisenhower's 1961 budget, said Budget Director Stans Tuesday, is in "acute jeopardy" of becoming unbalanced.

If all or most of the measures now pending in Congress are enacted, Stans said, "they will shatter the hopes of millions of taxpayers that in due time there might be tax reduction and reform, while meeting our solemn obligation to reduce the staggering 290-billion-dollar public debt."

Stans made his plea in a letter to Rep. John Taber of New York, ranking Republican of the House Ways and Means Committee. Its release seemed timed for maximum effect as Congress jostled into the final weeks before adjournment.

Eisenhower's 80-million-dollar budget for the 1961 fiscal year, which starts July 1, provides a surplus of four billions. But Stans said that was forecast on the basis of holding spending to the President's recommended levels and enactment of higher postal rates and gasoline taxes.

The higher postal rates have been buried by a House committee in this election year. Congress raised the gasoline tax one cent last year, but has done nothing to meet Eisenhower's request for another half cent this year.

Stans singled out as budget-busting items the lack of postal rate increases, the proposed pay increase for federal workers, extra defense and welfare legislation, and House approval of tax deductions to self-employed persons for pension savings.

The Senate, perhaps to forestall just such attacks as Stans' this week voted to increase federal tax revenue rather than cut it. It extended corporation and excise taxes and voted to add another 650 million dollars by tightening restrictions in tax laws. However, the fate of these amendments was dubious as the bill headed to a Senate-House conference committee.

William Bleigh, 1611 Alpha St., president of the 36-member Local 13656 of East Liverpool, said this morning the union was to be represented by a five-man team.

The team was to include Thomas Dunn of Pittsburgh, regional director of District 50 of the United Mine Workers, Frank Wisser of East Palestine, field representative; Bleigh, and two local committeemen, Earl Steffen and Robert Kelly.

At a session at Steubenville Friday, the company said it offered a new contract with all of the terms and conditions of the expired contract, agreed to grant four requests, and would withdraw all of its requests for changes in the contract.

Bleigh said the company has agreed to four minor contract issues which the union will not accept unless Ohio Valley agrees to a new contract, including wage increases and fringe benefits.

The union is expected to accept or reject the offer today.

Spectacular Space 'First'

2 Satellites Blasted Into Orbit By U.S. With Single Rocket

Navigation Aid 'Moons' Successful

2-Stage Thor Able Star Launched In Only Second Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The United States, scoring a spectacular space "first," rammed two satellites into orbit with a single rocket today.

The doubleheader rocket that turned the trick was a two-stage Thor-Able-Star, an Air Force vehicle making only its second flight. It rose smoothly from its searchlight-illuminated pad at 12:55 a.m. and streaked like a fiery comet toward the southeast.

The second stage fired for about four minutes, shut off and coasted for 20 minutes, then reignited for 13 seconds to kick the satellites into orbit.

The two new moonlets flashing the skies are Transit II-A, a second experimental navigation aid satellite, and a basket-ball-sized aluminum sphere crammed with instruments to measure solar radiation.

The latter is called a "piggy back" satellite because it hitchhiked a ride aboard the larger Transit payload.

Transit II-A is a 36-inch ball weighing 223 pounds. The tinier 42-pound package, looking much like a sea diver's helmet, was clamped to it until a spring device separated the pair in orbit.

America tried once before, with a Vanguard rocket, to fire a pair of satellites into orbit simultaneously, but failed. As far as is known, the Soviet Union has not attempted such a feat.

Confirmation of orbit came 1½ hours after launch when the satellite

Parley Slated On Gas Strike

Union Action Seen On Contract Offer

New contract negotiations were to be held this afternoon at the Ft. Steuben Hotel at Steubenville between the striking union and company officials of the Ohio Valley Gas Co.

The 53-day-old strike by the maintenance workers started May 1 when the union's contract expired.

Claire Willmeth, a federal conciliator from the regional office at Cleveland, was scheduled to preside over today's sessions.

The firm's negotiating team was to be headed by Harold Sneddon, division manager, and Kenneth Harsh of Steubenville, district manager.

William Bleigh, 1611 Alpha St., president of the 36-member Local 13656 of East Liverpool, said this morning the union was to be represented by a five-man team.

The team was to include Thomas Dunn of Pittsburgh, regional director of District 50 of the United Mine Workers, Frank Wisser of East Palestine, field representative; Bleigh, and two local committeemen, Earl Steffen and Robert Kelly.

$10,000 Bond Set For Man In City Burglary

Pittsburgh Suspect Held To Grand Jury In Drugstore Entry

John C. Ciesielski, 31, of Pittsburgh was held to the Grand Jury under $10,000 bond today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff after a lengthy preliminary hearing on a charge he burglarized the Peoples Drugstore of narcotics early Sunday.

Captured in a wrecked car on the River Rd. a few minutes after the burglary, Ciesielski entered a not guilty plea through his counsel, Atty. George A. Aronson, but did not waive his right to a preliminary hearing, which required the prosecution to show cause for the court to hold him to the Grand Jury.

Authorities still are seeking an accomplice in the burglary, in which 18 bottles of codeine and morphine were taken. Police said a second man leaped from the car and made his escape into high weeds along the road.

Ciesielski was released at 1:30 p. m. Tuesday from City Hospital, where he had been under treatment.

Crime Group Slates Agents For Hancock

WEIRTON — The West Virginia Crime Commission was expected to have advance men in this Brooke — Hancock County area today.

There is a strong possibility that the commission may hold hearings in this Northern Panhandle area, including Wheeling.

The state beer licensing set up was criticized Tuesday by City Manager James Boyd of Wheeling.

F. Dean Nichols, crime commission counsel, conferred in Wheeling with Boyd and Police Chief M. A. Baumann.

Nichols said he feels that prostitution and gambling in the Wheeling area is organized but did not know to what extent. He also said he believes the courts were "too lenient" on gamblers and criticized what he termed "apathy of the public."

"The public should be told of the conditions," he said. "Then corrective action could be taken."

Nichols said that the patrolmen and "man on the beat" in Wheeling should "hammer at the criminals when they see laws being broken."

Postal Project Draws Debate At Wellsville

Council Discusses Whether To Accept Remodeled Building

The question of whether Wellsville should get an entirely new building for a Post Office or accept a remodeled structure was raised again at a meeting of City Council Tuesday night.

A "discussion" on the matter was started when Roy E. Ronke of Cleveland, a postal real estate officer, both verbally and in a letter asked Council to abandon a 16-foot easement held by the city at the rear of the Standard Hardware building at 12th and Main Sts., which has been purchased by a Cleveland man to be renovated and made into a Post Office.

Hugh J. Nelson of University Heights also sent a letter to Council asking the easement be abandoned. He is the owner of the building and has submitted the only bid on a Post Office for Wellsville.

Ronke said he conferred yesterday with Pennsylvania Railroad authorities at Pittsburgh on the abandonment. The railroad is the only other adjoining property holder, besides Nelson. The real estate head there said a letter will be signed today and sent to Mayor William J. Shoub, agreeing to the abandonment, Ronke said.

He said the area is needed for a loading dock and maneuvering area and pointed out Nelson was the only person to submit a bid. The bids were open for either a new building or one suitable to be renovated from May 6 to June 5. Ronke said the bids are only about two-thirds the cost of a new building. The brick building will be sandblasted and air conditioned and a new metal roof will be installed.

Ronke said Nelson has a contract with K. & M. Construction of Wellsville for nearly $50,000 for the remodeling work. He said the entire project will cost about $77,500.

He said the bid probably will be

Sen. Traubert Case Heard

Testimony Differs In Suit Over Balloting In Hancock

CHARLESTON (AP) — Some 295 disputed Hancock County ballots were described on the one hand Tuesday as clearly of a sample variety — and on the other as, at the most, irregular official ballots.

The different ideas were outlined for the State Supreme Court during arguments in a case centered about the apparent Democratic nomination of former Del. William Tompos of Weirton to a 1st District State Senate seat.

Tompos and the Hancock County Court were before the court to show why the 295 ballots should not be thrown out. Such an order would leave incumbent Sen. Herbert Traubert (D-Brooke) the May 10 primary victor, 10,841 to 10,801.

Abraham Pinsky of Wellsville, representing Traubert, told the appellate judges that the words, "Sample ballot, Democratic Party," were printed on the face of each ballot in question.

He argued that state law clearly says, "No sample ballots shall be voted or counted," and that the language on the face of the Hancock County Court were before the court to

The Fallacy Of Figure Finagling

Although he apparently skipped over the detailed facts and figures, Vice President Nixon was standing on solid ground when he told the National United Chamber of Commerce that the United States will stay far ahead of the Soviet Union economically for at least the rest of this century.

Mr. Nixon was answering critics of current policy, who contend that the United States economic growth is too slow and agree with Nikita Khrushchev that there is a real possibility we will be overtaken by Russia.

But these critics make the figures say what they want, and in doing so they overlook some elementary facts.

A RECENT ISSUE of the Magazine of Wall Street, on the other hand, pointed out these elementary facts. Whatever the percentage of economic growth of the two countries—and they are subject to varying interpretations—it is nevertheless true that U.S. production far exceeds Russia's and our standard of living is the highest in the world.

What this means in down-to-earth terms, the magazine says, is this:

"If every Russian who has a pair of shoes purchased another pair within a year's time, the increase would be 100 per cent. If every American who owns four pairs of shoes bought a new pair, the result would be only a 25 per cent increase—yet at the end of the year the American would still have three pairs more than the Russian.

"From a population standpoint, if their production of shoes equaled our own, every American would own one pair, while half of the Russians would be barefoot, because their population is twice that of ours."

The article puts it still another way: "Although all data on Russian output tend to be grossly inflated for propaganda purposes, it appears likely that present Russian output is equal to about 40 per cent of United States output. Since the population of Russia is larger than that of the United States and since a smaller percentage of Russian output consists of consumer goods, the standard of living probably is some 75 to 80 per cent below ours."

ANOTHER SIMPLE FACT is that Russia's economy is young, while ours is mature. As the magazine points out, some of the more backward countries of the free world which we have been helping have even higher rates of economic growth than Russia does. But it is doubtful any of them, or Russia, will be able to maintain those early-year growth rates as their economies mature and they shift from high capital goods production to more consumer goods production.

The salient point of all this is that the administration critics who advocate "economic planning" overlook the fact that the United States has achieved its economic leadership through free enterprise.

And if there is one thing that will bar Russia from achieving her economic potential, it is regimented, bureaucratic "economic planning."

There is no experience in history which proves it will work. There are plenty of examples to show how easily it fails.

Espionage Among Friends

Casual observation would probably lead most of us to conclude that makers of spying equipment have a rather limited market, despite the evidence of widespread espionage activities among nations.

Not so, says "The Insider's Newsletter." It is a booming business. What makes it so? Business.

The publication reports that professional spies work chiefly at checking out bank-loan applications, helping partners keep an eye on each other and helping companies keep abreast of what their competitors are doing.

Some of the new equipment makes the wooden eagle with hidden microphone which was presented by Russia to the United States Embassy in Moscow look like a primitive crudity.

There is, for instance, a paint chemical that conducts electricity and can serve as the "wire" from a hidden microphone to a receiver. It is applied with a brush and then painted over with regular paint.

A dummy wall outlet contains a powerful battery - operated transmitter. Picture frames, typewriters and clocks can be equipped with built-in transmitters. A palm-sized microphone with pocket receiver can pick up a whisper 50 feet away.

As could be expected, the article says, these techniques have led to counter-espionage activities among businessmen. One purpose is to watch for employees in sensitive positions who have a tendency to talk too much in public places. They are likely to find themselves transferred to "nonsensitive" jobs.

Of course, these are simply new approaches to an old game. Curiosity may have killed the cat, but humans have been thriving on it — above or below board — for centuries.

This Is Fiscal Responsibility

Although the Senate has billed its vote for a 650-million-dollar tax increase as a stand for "fiscal responsibility," we must confess its action looks more like peanut politics to us. There are several reasons for our skepticism.

For one thing, while the legislators were looking so hard for loopholes on the income side of the ledger, they displayed only casual interest in plugging up the loopholes on the outgo side of the ledger. What they might have saved the taxpayers there could make 650 million dollars look like pocket change.

For another, their attempt to affect more "fairness" in expense deductions on income tax returns rings with a certain hollowness. A strong case can be made for the Treasury's argument that detailed determination of what constitutes a legitimate business expense and what does not can be handled more effectively in enforcement than in legislation.

And still very much in the taxpayers' thoughts are the reports of congressional abuses of expense accounts. The Senate did make a mild move toward controlling this, but rendered it virtually useless by tacking on a provision the House cannot be expected to accept.

Still another consideration is the fact that the administration's request for postal rate increases to reduce the Post Office Department deficit still lies neglected on Capitol Hill. This would have been a truer gauge of fiscal responsibility and would have covered part of the increased spending the senators are talking about—the pay boosts for postal employees.

Last, but certainly not least, is the fact that the Senate took its action in the face of advance warning that the House will not accept any amendments in the revenue bill. This leaves the inevitable suspicion that the upper chamber was simply indulging in an old legislative maneuver—passing a bill that will get sidetracked some place along the line before it completes its journey into law.

Fiscal responsibility requires more than last-minute, election-year grandstand plays. It demands constant, consistent efforts to control both spending and collecting to serve the interests of the taxpayers.

This latest action by the Senate is too little, too late and upside down.

Ahoy, Solomon

The legal uncertainty of jurisdiction along the Ohio River between West Virginia and Ohio has been clarified locally in one aspect by Municipal Judge Samuel Chertoff's ruling of "concurrent" authority in matters of violation of city or state laws.

Thus the Chester and Newell Bridges offer no quasi - neutral stage for sad actors of either state seeking to avoid entanglement with the courts.

Judge Chertoff's ruling not only has some solid foundation of legal precedence it has the common sense citizens expect of the law, unclouded by difficult technicalities.

Some similar clearcut and logical ruling should be made by federal courts concerning the confusion of another legal fog over the river — that involving boat licenses.

A 1958 federal law requires boats to be licensed in the state in which they "are principally used." Authorities in West Virginia and Kentucky, whose boundaries extend to the low water mark on the north side of the river, maintain the principal use of boats is on the river, while Ohio, Illinois and Indiana officials interpret the principal use as where the boats are docked.

The issue, of course, hinges upon license fees, and it is doubtful that Judge Chertoff's "concurrent jurisdiction" — with payment of double fees — will apply here. Boat owners are hopeful, however, that the legal result will be one of fairness, efficiency and convenience, ending the uncertainty which has plagued the inland sailors.

This is time to get snap into the knee action as he asks, "Would you sell or hold on?" Here the broker goes into one of those long talks which confuse and pain a customer.

Most market players fall into chair, lose their spring, brush off their sense of rhythm and become extra morose.

Only the dancing spirit can help them and some lively Mexican or Brazilian routines are called for.

Lively footwork and plenty of bounce are now great advantages and Arthur Murray becomes more helpful than Dow-Jones. It is necessary, however, for a dancing investor to get his broker into a dancing mood, too, and if a broker knows his stuff he may conclude with "The market is going through a technical phase. It may go up soon or go down farther. May I join you in a ballet number?"

This sort of co-operation may mean the Victory of Twinkle Toes Over Wall Street Bafflements.

The Once Over

Nicholas Darvas, a professional dancer, has written a book on how to make millions in the stock market. He says he made a couple without much trouble.

This will drive many Americans to take dancing lessons. Not using their heads profitably they will be eager to try their feet. It seems to us that the dancing mood is helpful in playing the market, especially when stocks are falling. It's psychological.

"How's the market today?" we imagine Mr. Vargas asking. "It's off," says broker. "Very much off?" asks Mr. Vargas, doing a few moderately fancy steps.

The broker says the selling is quite heavy. This calls for a customer to go into something especially exciting in dance routines as he asks, "How do I stand at the moment?"

The broker breaks the news that a customer is sustaining substantial losses. If a customer stops dancing at this point he is lost, so far as morale is concerned.

Rep. Hays and the $4,000

Review Made Of Expense Accounting

The following article by Don Oberdorfer and Walter Pincus, published in the Akron Beacon Journal June 5, 1960, is one in an exclusive series pinpointing Congressional laxity in spending of public funds. It is copyrighted by Knight Newspapers, Inc., and republished with permission of the Beacon Journal.

WASHINGTON — A controversial four - year - old committee which has been referred to on the floor of the House as "that junketeering organization" carries on some of the most unusual expense account practices in Congress.

The group is the House delegation to the NATO parliamentary conference. The delegation has a $15,000 annual budget.

Records in the House Disbursing Office, publicly available until officials locked and sealed them after finding newsmen checking into them, showed such spending and accounting practices as these: Rep. Wayne Hays, Ohio Democrat, head of the House NATO delegation, drew $4,000 in cash advances from the NATO House fund between June 1958 and June 1959.

NEARLY TWO YEARS since that first "advance," Hays still has not accounted for any of the money to the House Disbursing Office.

NATO funds were paid for 47 one-way air trips and five auto trips taken by Hays between Washington and his Flushing, O., home or to Pittsburgh and Wheeling, W. Va., nearest air terminals to it.

The trips were made in a nine-month period in 1958-59.

Roughly $2,250 for trips to Europe aboard the S. S. United States was spent from the Hays-controlled NATO funds for six "volunteer" aides.

They included two employees of Hays' office, a secretary of the House Administration Committee and the managing editor of a newspaper in Hays' home district.

WE WERE EXAMINING vouchers relating to the return trips of the aides when officials closed the doors of the House Disbursing Office to the public.

Hays has submitted vouchers to the House Disbursing Office for all the specific bills paid by that office. But he insists he need not account for the $4,000 he drew as advances.

He says he has accounted for that money to the House Administration Committee of which he is a senior member. Aides in that committee refuse to discuss this accounting.

These reimbursements and advances came out of $15,000 provided by the House for its delegation to the parliamentarians' conferences that are held each year.

Hays sponsored the law which provided for participation by the House in the conference.

THE LAW GIVES the chairman of the House delegation — who is Hays — wide authority to determine what is a proper expenditure of funds from the NATO account.

Rep. H. R. Gross, Iowa Democrat, a persistent critic of the House NATO fund, has called the group "that junketeering organization."

Hays produced some figures which he said had been given to the House Administration Committee to account for the money.

But Rep. Omar Burleson, Texas Democrat, committee chairman, said he knew of no such accounting. "I don't think the NATO group accounts come through us at all."

Committee Clerk Julian Langston refused to discuss the situation.

Hays says this group will not permit him to show reporters any bills or receipts supporting the expenditure. "They said that if we open those, we open up everything."

Hays told us he spent the $4,000 to pay his expenses on three NATO trips.

HE ALSO SAID he and his delegation drew lesser amounts on counterpart funds in foreign currencies.

On the first trip to Brussels in July 1958, Hays said he spent $152. He had drawn $1,000 advance for that trip.

Hays said he used the $858 left over to help pay for a trip to the NATO conference in November in Paris.

Before the November trip, however, Hays drew another $2,000 from the House Disbursing Office.

In addition to Hays, eight other Congressmen and three staff "volunteers" took the November trip, which Hays said cost $2,946. This was $98 more than he had left from advances drawn up to that time. He says he made up this difference from his own pocket.

In June 1959, Hays drew a third advance on House NATO funds, this time for $1,000.

THIS MONEY, Hays said, was used to finance a trip to a meeting in London, attended by nine Congressmen and two staff members. Exactly $1,000 was spent on this trip, Hays said.

Of the $4,098 which Hays said he spent on the NATO meetings, $2,987.16 went for lodging, $160.84 for meals, $186 for incidentals and ground transportation and $200 for translators.

Hays did not show us, however, any receipts for these bills.

The 52 trips which Hays took between Washington and his Congressional district in Ohio and which were paid for out of the House NATO funds cost $1,026.89.

Of the five trips taken by automobile, Hays said he charged trips by car to the NATO fund "when I had to come to Washington on NATO business."

Of the 47 air trips between Washington and Pittsburgh or Wheeling, Hays said: "I took them to make speeches about NATO — I expect I made 60 speeches."

"PROBABLY HALF of them were in my district," Hays continued. "The others in Western Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio cities bordering my district."

"When I went out to speak on NATO I charged the account. I couldn't afford to do it on my own."

The $2,250 travel expense aboard the S. S. United States was for trips for six staff aides to the parliamentarians' conference meeting in Paris in 1956. Nine members of the House went along.

Staff aides included Donald R. Gosney and Hilda Mudd, employees in Hays' office; Marjorie Savage, an employee of the House Administration Committee, and Robert Fordyce, managing editor of the Martins Ferry-Bellaire Times-Leader.

Hays said the group went to Europe on the ship rather than using a Military Air Transport Service (MATS) plane because "we could not get a (MATS) plane assigned to us."

ANOTHER EXPENSE charged to the NATO account was for a $266 trip by Marie Krim, secretary in Hays' Ohio office, from Egypt to West Germany.

Hays said Mrs. Krim was a "volunteer" on the staff at the 1957 meeting of the NATO group in Paris.

When the American delegation to the NATO meeting inspected NATO installations, Hays said, Mrs. Krim went along as far as Cairo "to do some secretarial work."

"This (expense voucher) was to take her back to Frankfurt," Hays said, "where she could pick up a MATS flight for home."

"She lost her ticket stub so we had to call the airline to get the amount — to verify her memory of what she had paid — and then we reimbursed her."

Slaughter On Quemoy

By David Lawrence

Red Bombardment Brings No Denouncement

Human beings were actually slaughtered. The lives of innocent persons were crushed out by artillery shells. They were not Europeans or Americans. They were Chinese. Does this make a difference?

There are no petitions proclaimed by organizations such as cry out against nuclear tests—usually on the basis of humane considerations.

The families on the 14 tiny islands of the Quemoy group were terrorized by 174,000 shells—an all-time record in the Formosa Strait hostilities.

In fact, in three hours of the two days the Communists fired more shells than they did in the first two weeks of the 1958 crisis.

Yet the Communist government in Peking, which undertook the bombardment solely as a gesture of hostility toward President Eisenhower and the United States, seems to be getting away with its barbaric act.

Those British newspapers, for instance, which heaped coals of criticism on President Eisenhower for going to the Far East have not denounced the Red China government for its wanton behavior.

One reason perhaps is that the British have extended diplomatic recognition to the Red China government. They did so largely to protect their commercial interests in Hong Kong.

IN THIS COUNTRY the pressure for recognition of the Peking regime comes from the so-called "liberals" led by Adlai Stevenson, Democrat.

Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.), has indicated his belief that some understanding should be reached with the Red China government. To do so means abandonment of the cause of freedom in the Far East. It means the certain collapse of Korea and Formosa.

The Nationalist government on Formosa is a symbol of freedom, yet "liberal" influence today is exerted toward breaking down this bastion of Western strength.

Recently the Korean government has been weakened and so has the Turkish government.

There is a chance now, too, that the Japanese government will be torn by strife from within and will be a victim more and more of Communist infiltration.

When the Red Chinese began to shell the Quemoy Islands and brazenly announced that they were doing it as a gesture of "contempt and scorn" for President Eisenhower—as the Peiping radio declared—it might have been supposed that the free world would react to such a maneuver with expressions of horror and disgust. President Eisenhower referred to the shelling when he spoke in Formosa. He regarded the action as cruel and barbaric and said that it showed the typical Communist "disregard of human lives," and added: "I would think world opinion would characterize it as a deliberate and aggressive act."

Why, it may be respectfully asked, has there not been official condemnation from the governments at Paris and London?

Curiously enough, when a few persons were killed in South Africa due to the panic that seized the police in trying to quell a so-called "non-violent" demonstration, the governments in Europe and in other countries, especially in Asia, immediately expressed their disapproval in no uncertain terms.

Will any government in Southeast Asia now denounce the Red Chinese for what they have just done in Quemoy?

THE WESTERN ALLIES do not appear today to be united on Far Eastern policy.

The United States bore the brunt of the resistance to the Communist invasion of Korea, even though the fighting was done in the name of the United Nations.

It seems incredible that, even though the U.N. passed a resolution condemning Red China as an aggressor in Korea, there are so many governments inside the U.N. today ready and willing to reward the aggressor by ousting the Nationalist government on Formosa and giving the China seat in the U.N. to the Red regime.

The usual argument made—and it has lately been parroted by the misguided Gen. Montgomery—is that "China is a fact."

So was Nazi Germany a fact, but the rest of the world recognized and carried on diplomatic relations with the Polish government in exile, the Czech government in exile, and the Hungarian government in exile—all these governments being stationed in London—during World War II.

The Korean War isn't ended yet. An armistice has been signed but no peace treaty.

The terms of the armistice are being repeatedly violated by the Red Chinese.

When the appeasers start talking about recognizing Red China and when prominent Democrats exhibit friendliness toward the Communist regime in Red China, it is natural that the Peiping barbarians should take a chance and inflict a bombardment on the civilian population of the Quemoy Islands.

Maybe they think that, if the Eisenhower administration is replaced by a Democratic administration next January, there will be a tendency to "let bygones be bygones."

The Communists must wonder if the West is really as dedicated to the principles of humanity as it professes to be.

State Department Fizzle

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON The picture of the State Department which emerges from senatorial quizzing on the U2 spy plane and the Tokyo riots is more than just the poor judgment now admitted.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter and his department showed a lack of attention to vital details and a failure to understand both human reactions and Communist tactics.

When the Central Intelligence Agency sent the U2 on its mission over Russia—just two weeks before the summit conference—it was taking a chance, since the plane might be downed and American spying exposed.

The result could have been guessed in human terms. Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who had been preaching good will toward President Eisenhower and the United States, would be outraged. And no wonder.

Such an incident would make him look like a sap before the whole Communist world. While he had been pumping up hope for the summit meeting, the United States was violating Soviet territory.

This goes far to explain his violent reaction when the plane was downed and the pilot captured. He wrecked the summit, called off Eisenhower's trip to Russia, and began a campaign of ridicule against him.

It might have been expected of the State Department—with the summit meeting so close—that it would have been on top of every detail involving Russian relations.

But Herter told the Senate Foreign Relations committee that neither he nor Eisenhower knew specifically of the disastrous spy flight although they had approved the spy program in general.

Eisenhower was to have gone on to Japan after his tour of Russia. There was good reason to believe that, even if he had a Russian triumph, he might have met with violence and riots in Tokyo.

Communists, laborites, neutralists and even some conservatives were opposed to the new American-Japanese defense treaty. There had been mounting demonstrations against it for more than a year.

This alone—since Eisenhower's safety might be endangered and American prestige damaged—would have been reason enough to call off his Tokyo trip once Khrushchev had canceled his Russian visit. It would have been based on the idea of taking no unnecessary chances.

When Vice President Richard M. Nixon made his Latin American trip in the early part of 1958—and ran into anti-American riots—Khrushchev had just become premier. He had not yet entered his love-America phase.

The Communists were blamed in big part for the anti-American riots against Nixon. That's understandable. The Communist world then was trying to embarrass the United States every way it could.

By the time Eisenhower made his Latin American trip this year, Khrushchev had visited him here, the summit meeting was just a few weeks away, and Khrushchev was soft-pedaling anti-Americanism.

It is probably more than accidental that Eisenhower, unlike Nixon, ran into almost no anti-Americanism from Latin American Communists. Moscow, because of the mood prevailing at the time, probably told them to go easy on Eisenhower.

So, if the summit were not a bust and Eisenhower made a triumphal tour of Russia, it could have been expected Moscow would tell Communists everywhere to pipe down when Eisenhower arrived, including Tokyo.

Britain and Portugal both have colonial empires which are 23 times greater than the area of the homeland.

Further Evidence Emerges

Sharp Differences Noted
In Presidential Aspirants

By The Associated Press
Further evidence emerged today of the sharp differences between candidates in both the Republican and Democratic races for the presidential nomination.

On the Republican side, the latest evidence was in public view. Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York offered it in major speeches Tuesday.

On the Democratic side, the latest evidence involved private party meetings. Supporters of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas were exchanging warnings that the other man couldn't win in November.

The Nixon-Rockefeller differences concerned the nation's economic growth and its method of making high policy decisions.

In a speech in St. Louis, Nixon criticized those who say that the Soviet Union is growing at a much faster economic rate than the United States and who call for government steps to change this.

"The critics argue that if we would just adopt their pet economic philosophy we too would grow like the Soviets," Nixon told the National Junior Chamber of Commerce.

"They invite us to join them in playing what is rapidly becoming the most fashionable political parlor game of our time—a game we might call 'growthmanship.'"

But Rockefeller, in a television interview in Binghamton, N.Y., said economic growth was "far more important than a parlor game. It affects the lives and well-being of the people of our country."

The governor, who says he would be available for a Republican draft at the national convention, has called often for an increased growth in the economy.

In an address before the Binghamton Rotary Club Tuesday, Rockefeller said "there is something seriously wrong with the working of the decision-making process of our government." He cited the U2 incident as one indication.

He said the government needs a super-cabinet official, a First Secretary of the Government to "assist the President in the exercise of his authority in the whole area of national security and international affairs."

This proposal was considered once by the Eisenhower administration and rejected. Rockefeller's revival of it was considered a criticism of administration policies, which Nixon has defended.

But, despite these differences, Nixon, likely winner of the nomination, said at a St. Louis news conference that "the Republican party is the most unified since 1956 when President Eisenhower was the unifying force."

In the Democratic political infighting, Kennedy supporters were asking party workers whether Johnson, a Texan, could carry New York, California, and other large states. The Kennedy people's implication was Johnson could not.

On the other hand, Johnson supporters were asking party workers whether Kennedy, a Roman Catholic, could carry any of their states. The implication of the Johnson people was that Kennedy could not.

Another Democratic candidate, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, gave a television audience his estimate of the relative strength of the United States and the Soviet Union.

"We have lost a great deal of strength," he said on the taped show—Today, NBC.

He told an interviewer he would not release the state's 81 votes

LaCroft Youth Injures Skull

A LaCroft youth, hurt in a fall out of a tree, was admitted Tuesday to City Hospital where three youngsters and a man were treated and released following separate mishaps.

Reid Densmore Jr., 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reid Densmore of Densmore Ave., is in "satisfactory" condition today with a possible skull fracture received in a fall from a wild cherry tree in which he was playing near home yesterday afternoon.

William Blystone, 7, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Blystone of Drain St., suffered a cut of the right hand on a piece of glass.

Randall Wolfe, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe, 923 Bank St., received a cut of the nose in a fall on cement steps at home.

John Parsons, 26, of Curry St., employee of the Parsons Coal Co., was treated for a possible fracture of a finger of the left hand when caught in a cement mixer door.

Mary Morgan, 2, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan, 2613 St. Clair Ave., received a cut of a toe of the right foot when caught in a tricycle wheel.

cock ballots clearly characterized their sample nature.

Pinsky continued that the fact there was no implication of fraud "made no difference because the statute says nothing about fraud. It simply says that sample ballots shall not be voted or counted."

Weirton attorneys Floyd R. Tarr and Donald R. Donell contended, on behalf of Tompos and the county court members that the ballots were marked official on the back and were signed by poll clerks.

They said the sample designation resulted from a printer's error; their argument added that after the error was discovered about noon on election day, proper election officials were notified and steps were taken to assure proper handling of the ballots.

Satellites

lite duo—the smaller leading the way—passed over a Seattle station on their first globe-circling passes.

Navy officials in Washington reported the satellites were spinning approximately in their intended orbits and were transmitting strong signals. They said it would be some time before the exact apogee and perigee are determined.

Both were aimed at near-circular orbits 500 miles high and at courses which would take them over all parts of the world between the Arctic and Antarctic circles. This covers most of the Soviet Union.

Transit II-A is an advanced version of Transit I-B, which was hoisted into orbit by the first Thor-Able-Star last April 13. Both are forerunners of an operational network of Transit satellites that can give ships, submarines and airplanes accurate position fixes in any weather, day or night, anywhere in the world.

Two or three more test transits are scheduled for launching before the system becomes operational, probably in 1962. Then, four of these space lighthouses will whirl about the earth in evenly spaced orbits. They will radio a constant stream of information to be translated by navigators into longitude and latitude.

They are expected to provide accurate fixes within one-tenth of a mile. Present navigation aids give position fixes of half a mile at best and are dependent on weather.

The Defense Department has given high military priority to the Transit program because of its importance to Polaris missile submarines. By extending a whip antenna above the ocean surface, these nuclear subs will be able to obtain a position reading from the nearest Transit. This information would be vital in plotting missile trajectories.

Primary mission of the piggy back satellite was to measure various types of radiation in the ionosphere, an electrified belt extending from 35 miles to several hundred miles above the earth.

Cleveland Finds Counterfeit $20's

CLEVELAND — Cleveland storekeepers were warned to be on the lookout for a new crop of counterfeit $20 bills that have come into circulation.

Michael P. Burger, special agent in charge of the Secret Service Cleveland office, said 15 of the spurious Federal Reserve Bank notes have been passed since Saturday in stores in all sections of Cleveland — most of them on the East Side.

The serial number on the counterfeit bills is D46290406A, appearing on the lower left and upper right hand sections of the faces of the bills. The series used was 1950B to the right of the center on the lower part of the face.

They are marked as having been issued by the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland.

Burger said the counterfeit notes are identical with $1,000 worth seized from two men, who gave untraceable Cleveland addresses, arrested in Wellsburg, W. Va., on June 13.

Delta Queen, River's Biggest Boat, Goes By

The Delta Queen, the largest vessel tonnage-wise now operating on the Ohio River, passed East Liverpool Tuesday night about 9.

The boat, which is used in the tourist trade, was locked through Dam 8 at Newell at 8:35 p. m. on her trip from Cincinnati to Pittsburgh. It is expected to return down river sometime next week.

Built at Stockton, Calif., in 1926, the boat originally was operated by the Green Line Steamers, Inc., of Cincinnati, but was sold in 1958 to two New Jersey industrialists.

Postal Project Draws Debate

let next week at Cincinnati if the easement is abandoned.

Before any action was taken by Council on the proposal, the floor was thrown open to anyone who wished to make any statements concerning the Post Office.

Atty. Delmar T. O'Hara was the first to speak. He said that due to the complications involved in the transaction of the land back in 1886, it may take more than action by Council to abandon the easement.

He also raised the question as to whether it is just an easement or a dedicated street or alley. He also questioned the procedure of "giving" the land away, contending the city should be paid for the ground.

Councilman Donald Miller pointed out Council abandoned an alley and gave the ground to the McLain Refractories Division of the H. K. Porter Co. for its expansion program.

Miller then questioned O'Hara as to why he is "opposed to the Post Office at 12th St?" O'Hara said that his personal views had nothing to do with the opinion he advanced on the legal technicalities and added he is not opposed to the Post Office at 12th St. but rather favors a new building in the business district.

"We are entitled to a new one and can get it," he said. "We shouldn't settle for less."

O'Hara detailed his investigation into the matter and said that surrounding communities are getting new buildings and Wellsville should, too. He said New Cumberland, Industry and East Liverpool are due to receive new Post Offices, adding that the new Post Office in East Liverpool will be in East End. He urged Council to go on record asking for a new Post Office.

Miller said Council wanted something better in 1960 and "we still don't have it." He pointed out no other bids were offered.

Mrs. Helen Welch asked Ronke whom he represented. Ronke said he was representing the Post Office department and also appearing in the interests of Nelson, but "primarily for the postal department to clear the matter of the easement."

She said she wished "we could get a post office man who represents the citizens." She asked Council "Why don't you get busy and get us a new building?" She said that a rebuilt garage will not be something Wellsville will be proud of.

She said "in five years you'll be ashamed of it and so will be the Post Office workers."

Various technical points concerning the location and the advertised bid also were discussed. Councilman William Stroble asked why Council is being put in the middle on the proposal. "We are neutral," he said. It was pointed out Council went on record as favoring the location at 12th and Main.

Council then said the action was taken because it was being rumored at the time that Council opposed the site.

Stroble said Council has nothing to do with where it goes. Mrs. Welch replied that "if Council does anything to make it easier, you will be blamed."

Ronke said that if the section is vacated or abandoned, it will revert to Nelson. He then said that he obtained options on different pieces of property about town but that the price was too high for anyone to purchase them.

He said one piece of property on Main St. with a 30-foot frontage would have cost $25,000. Another property owner wanted $67,000 for his land, he said.

Ronke said O'Hara and others were given the bid specifications two weeks before they were published to see if they could come up with something.

Miller then asked Elmer Evans, postmaster, to speak. Evans said he couldn't see why all the discussion was being held because all that was before Council was the request to abandon the easement.

He hit at the "hard core" of opponents to the move. He said it was agreed at a public meeting in April that if a suitable site for a new building couldn't be found, that the 12th St. site would be accepted.

He said he would favor a new building "if we could get it."

Solicitor William Bush said it is not Council's concern as to who would get the land once it was abandoned. And, action does not stem on how the land was acquired in the first place, he said.

He said Council could vacate the section if it desires. He also said he is not an opponent to the Post Office.

The discussion continued for over an hour. Council then adopted a motion that the legislation to abandoned the easement be brought in.

Ronke then asked how soon action could be taken, pointing out he would like to have the deal closed before the end of the fiscal year July 1. He said he would go to Pittsburgh and pick up the letter from the railroad giving its approval to the abandonment.

Council recessed until a special meeting is called by Mrs. Mary Rahter, president, to act on the legislation, which will be prepared by Bush when the letter is received from the railroad.

cellation of Eisenhower's Tokyo visit.

Told that Herter also testified that Eisenhower is abandoning personal high-level diplomacy and plans no more goodwill trips abroad, Hagerty remarked only that "as has been saying for some time that he knew of no arrangements for any additional trips outside the country."

Even as the President made plans for a TV-radio report after returning to Washington, the Red China radio was denouncing the whole Eisenhower journey as an ignominious failure.

Launching an "anti-U. S. imperialist week" the Peiping regime said Tuesday that everywhere the President went he "made a laughing stock of himself and was condemned."

Reports Slated Today At Ohio Church Meeting

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—Today's agenda at the annual session of the North-East Ohio Conference of the Methodist Church included reports from the conference boards of social and economic relations and of temperance and world peace.

These boards, which usually speak out on controversial issues, will be merged following the conference session into a new Board of Christian Social Concerns.

Delegates also were to hear today from a committee which has been studying the question of increasing the number of districts in the conference from the present eight.

The conference Tuesday called for a more aggressive program of evangelism aimed at keeping the churches' rate of membership increase in proportion with the population growth in Ohio.

Polish Red Leader Asks Economic Change

WARSAW (AP)—Polish Communist Chief Wladyslaw Gomulka Tuesday night proposed a revised 1961-65 five-year plan increasing investment in development of heavy industry and agriculture at said.

The party boss said investment in heavy industry and agriculture will each be increased about 2 per cent over the draft proposals made at the party Congress in March 1959. Investments in new housing will be 4.8 per cent lower than the original plan, Gomulka said.

Council Vote Is 4-3

Wellsville Rejects Gas Ordinance

An ordinance to ratify rate increases which went into effect in April for gas consumers under a compromise agreement worked out between valley towns and the Ohio Valley Gas Co. failed by 4-3 vote at a meeting of Wellsville City Council Tuesday night.

Favorable votes were cast by Councilmen Aguin Bowling, Robert Taggart and Paul Nelson while dissenting votes were given by Councilmen Clarence Cartwright, Donald Miller, Wilmer B. Ralston and William Stroble.

COUNCIL HAD tabled the ordinance at its last meeting to give each member time to read and study the proposal. At that time, Solicitor William Bush said one of the features was that the city would be in on negotiations of rates in future years. In former years the charges were handled directly between the company and the Public Utilities Commission at Columbus.

East Liverpool Council adopted the measure but it was vetoed by Mayor Bert Goodball.

Legislation amending the ordinance governing garbage and refuse collection and disposal was adopted under suspension of rules. The amendment provides that anyone hauling his own garbage to the city dump off Route 39 must first obtain written permission from the refuse department. This is to halt persons who haul their own refuse and do not sign for city collection.

IT ALSO will prohibit commercial haulers from using the dump. Permission was granted Rollin Henthorne Jr., 731 Wood St., and Lester H. Bickle, 505 17th St., to cut the curbs in front of their properties for driveways.

A letter was received from the Pennsylvania Railroad that the 18th St. crossing will be repaired in the near future. Council had asked the railroad for the work.

Council received a petition of 63 signatures, asking that the McKinley Playground remain in the 1st St. area. The petition was presented by four children.

Mayor William J. Shoub explained that the playground has to be moved because of the severe illness of a nearby resident.

He said action on the matter will be taken today. Shoub explained that the 4 children had started work at 3 p. m. Tuesday in collecting signatures for the petition.

THEIR NAMES were not given and they left the audience as soon as they were guaranteed they would have a play lot. They were congratulated for their interest and action in the matter.

A motion was adopted to reduce the speed limit on Commerce St. between 17th and 18th Sts. and Maple Ave. between 17th and 18th from 25 to 20 miles an hour. The area is near a playground.

Councilman Stroble said that if the city could raise $1,000, it could purchase enough stop signs to place at dangerous intersections. It could save a life, he said. The request was referred to the finance committee. Councilman Miller, finance chairman, said there isn't enough money.

Stroble also asked for repairs to an alley behind the Covenant United Presbyterian Church. He reported weeds growing out over the street on Main St. between 14th and 15th Sts.

COUNCIL adopted a motion directing Solicitor Bush to proceed with what ever action is needed to regain title to land on Main St. which formerly belonged to the city and was used by the Pennsylvania Railroad. Old legislation was read showing the land is to revert to the city if passenger service was ever halted in Wellsville. Passenger service ended many years ago.

Stroble also complained on speeding in various sections and asked that "Council do something about it." Councilman Taggart asked "what can Council do . . . its up to the police department."

Stroble suggested using two cruisers at night. Chief John Hepner said it is a bad policy to operate a cruiser with just one man at night. Miller said the answer is to put on more policemen.

Taggart reiterated the need for cleaning up a ditch on Aten Ave. Ext., which is filled with water.

An ordinance was read by Mrs. Margaret Baldwin, clerk, which states it is illegal for anyone to dump sink water in an open ditch.

MAYOR SHOUB said Safety-Service Director William S. Robinson and a representative of the County Health Department had met with one resident whose septic tank was causing part of the trouble. The man said he would make the necessary repairs if the city wasn't going to put in a sanitary sewer.

The sewer proposal has been discussed several times but the cost is too high. Council voted to drop any further investigation or action and directed the mayor to inform the man to make the repairs to his tank.

A resident near the 6th St. playground complained of older boys loafing in the lot until early hours of the morning. She also said they cursed at her when asked to be quiet. Stroble and Councilman Ralston said the boys should be picked up by police and taken to City Hall.

Mayor Shoub was asked to check on the matter.

A DELEGATION from 21st St. appeared with a complaint about sewage backing into their homes when a heavy rain occurs. A resident of 16th and Maple Sts. complained of a similar problem.

Most said the trouble started when manholes on sanitary sewers in the McQueen's Run pondage area were raised as part of the federal government's project. One said he believes that if the residents would not hook down spouts to sanitary sewer lines it would halt the problem.

Myron Weiss spoke from the audience and suggested they install backwater traps. Taggart suggested the city operate the 20th St. lift pump after a heavy rain. The matter was referred to Mayor Shoub, who was asked to have the pump operated to determine if it will remedy the situation.

Another resident of 21st St. complained of the rough condition of the street. She was told repairs will be made.

A REQUEST was received from business establishment in the area for a traffic signal light at 6th and Main Sts. The letter said the area is hazardous to both pedestrians and motorists. The street and light committee was asked to investigate.

A resolution was ordered to place a 1.8-mill levy on the ballot for street lighting for 5 years. It is a renewal.

The Rev. E. E. Bacon offered the opening prayer.

Midland Councilmen. Burgess To Make Trip

Burgess Eli Corak, Councilman and other Midland officers plan to attend the 49th annual Boroughs' association convention Sunday through Wednesday noon at the Pittsburgh Hilton Hotel.

There will be meetings for the various officers. The convention banquet will be held Monday evening, with entertainment and dancing following.

Besides the burgess, others to attend include Councilmen Joseph D'Alesio, Lester Trainer Jr., Raymond Presutti, Steve Germusa, president, William Vinovich, Harvey Sponcer and Joseph Hibbard, Mrs. Malena Westlake, borough secretary, and Atty. Robert Masters, solicitor.

District Lions Official To Seat Chester Groups

Zack Springer of Vienna, West Virginia Lions Club district governor, will install officers of the Chester Lions and Lioness Clubs at a joint dinner meeting Thursday night at 6:30 at the First Christian Church.

Springer will also induct new members into the Lions Club. John Abrams and Walter Jordan are in charge of the arrangements.

Apathy Marks Voting Signup

Although voter registration for the November general election began a month ago, the number of new voters enrolled has been more than off - set by the total removed because of death or change of residence to points outside the city. Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk of the board, commented today.

Registration so far has been "sporadic" at best, O'Hanlon said. The rolls were opened again May 14-16 days after the primary. The registration deadline for the general election falls Sept. 28, he reminded unqualified voters. The board's office at 129 W. 6th St. is open Monday through Friday from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. and Saturday from 9 a. m. to noon.

The names of 13 former voters were removed from the rolls today as an aftermath of a report of deaths during May furnished by the registrar of vital statistics.

Meanwhile, O'Hanlon asked for aid in locating new polling places for Precincts 1-F and 3-F. The 1-F voting place formerly was in a Mulberry St. storeroom and the 3-F voting place was in the Grant St. Civic League Building.

O'Hanlon said the board will welcome word from anyone willing to rent a private home or other suitable building for a polling place in the two areas.

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Four members of Syngman Rhee's government went on trial in Pusan today on charges of rigging the March presidential election in favor of Rhee and his running mate, Lee Ki-Poong.

Heading the quartet was former provincial Gov. Shin Do-Sung. One of three police officers accused with him was still at

3 Women Hurt In Auto Crash

Three elderly women were hospitalized and two men hurt in a head-on collision on Depot Rd. near Salem Tuesday, the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon reported.

A car driven by Robert Flannery, 25, of Lisbon R. D. 4 turned off Route 411 onto Depot Rd., swinging too wide, and collided head-on with an auto operated by Rhea Anderson, 61, of Louisville, officers said.

In "fair" condition today at Salem City Hospital are the woman driver, who suffered a fractured wrist and laceration of the leg;

Iva Simpson, 79, of Salem, passenger in her car, who received fractures of the shoulder and ribs, and Edith Mehl, 71, of Louisville, also a passenger, who suffered cuts of the scalp and head.

A third passenger, Robert Simpson, 80, of Salem was treated for a cut of the leg.

Flannery was treated at Salem Central Clinic for cuts of the lip and abrasions of the shoulder and leg. He was charged by the patrol with reckless operation.

Jury Convicts Youth In Dual Traffic Death

A Beaver County Court jury returned a verdict of guilty late Tuesday afternoon in the case of Bruno Porto Jr., 18, of Smiths Ferry, charged with involuntary manslaughter.

He was involved in the three-car accident Jan. 30 on Route 68 near Midland in which Thomas S. May, 50, of the Elks Home of East Liverpool and Mark Deering Eaton of Burgettstown, a passenger in the May auto, were killed.

Porto's trial began Monday. Sentencing will be held Friday this week and next Wednesday because of numerous cases.

Suit Asks $5,000

LISBON — Merl H. Davis of Salsville R. D. 1 filed suit in Common Pleas Court Tuesday for $5,000 from the W. J. Moore & Son Coal Co., claiming the firm damaged his land while stripping coal. He asks an injunction and writ ordering the firm to restore the course of a stream and reconstruct a roadway he said was damaged. Ray Moore is a co-defendant.

ment for injuries received in the crash. He was taken to jail to await the hearing this morning.

The preliminary hearing got underway at 9:40 this morning. On the table near the witness stand was a badly broken brown suitcase which police allege was hurled from the speeding car a few moments before the crash in an attempt to wreck a pursuing cruiser.

Officer Kent Garvey, driver of the cruiser which pursued the Pittsburgh car, was the first to testify. Lt. Mike Winters Jr. and Patrolman W. E. Nott, the other arresting officers, also were witnesses.

Garvey identified the suitcase as one which was hurled out of the right side of the car which he pursued. He identified the contents as a series of tools, including a sledge and tin snips, and a length of rope. He also identified a black box which he said contained the stolen narcotics.

The prosecution's exhibits also included a length of rope with a hook attached to one end. Garvey said it was found in the wrecked car. Police assume it was used for lowering the intruders through the drugstore ceiling after they had chopped a hole through the floor of a law office upstairs, he testified.

The charge, signed by Officer Nott, alleges that Ciesielski "in the night season maliciously and forcibly broke and entered Peoples Drugstore with intent to steal property and did steal narcotics."

As the hearing opened Atty. Aronson moved to quash the affidavit "as insufficient" and because "it does not state an offense under the laws of the state."

He was overruled by the judge, who said the "affidavit follows the letter of the law."

Ciesielski stood silent as his counsel entered the plea. A thin 6-footer with thick black hair, he appeared in court in dark trousers and a short-sleeved, gray sport shirt.

Officer Garvey told how he and Officer Nott pursued the red and white 1959 coupe about 3:30 a. m. Sunday after Lt. Winters told them the two men in the auto had been seen to leave a doorway alongside the drugstore carrying a suitcase. Then he told of the pursuit from the Diamond along St. Clair Ave., Walnut St. and the River Rd., where the auto wrecked.

A new facet was added to the crime report Tuesday when Joseph J. Ross, 26, of Beechwood St. told police his auto hit the suitcase which was hurled from the pursued car. The mishap caused damage to the stabilizer bar, muffler and tail pipe, he reported.

Ross said he was driving east

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP) — Official sources said today United Arab Republic authorities have foiled a plot to assassinate Maj. Gen. Ali Abu Nuwar, the Jordan army's former chief of staff who is currently a political refugee in Syria.

A Jordanian security tribunal May 4 sentenced Nuwar to a 15-year prison term in absentia on a charge of plotting to assassinate Premier Hazza Majali and Sheriff Nasser Ben Jamil, King Hussein's uncle, in Amman in 1957. Nuwar had fled to Syria in 1957.

Sources here said a Jordanian citizen, Mustaf Awad Ellaham, has been arrested and confessed that he was sent here to kill Nuwar.

Cleveland's Governor Of Girls' State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ruby Chapman of Cleveland will be inaugurated tonight as governor of Buckeye Girls' State by Judge Carl V. Weygandt, chief justice of the Ohio Supreme Court.

Miss Chapman, the third Negro girl to be elected to the post, and other state and county officials of the make-believe state were elected Tuesday. Weygandt has been officiating at the ceremony since Girls' State began 14 years ago.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle will speak at the banquet tonight.

Most of today will be spent organizing and operating the new governments.

Others to be inaugurated are Joan Burrig of Cincinnati, as lieutenant governor; Michelle Kennedy of Newton Falls, attorney general; Elizabeth Hunt of Adams Mills (Coshocton County), auditor; Teris Schery of Marysville, secretary of state, and Sue Serrott of Columbus, treasurer.

The governor and the attorney general are Federalists. The others all are from the Nationalist Party.

The Nationalists won the House of Representatives, getting 39 of 72 seats. The Federalists, however, control the Senate by a slim margin, 19-17.

Losers in the state races include Jane Fawcett, of Columbus, daughter of Ohio State University president Novice G. Fawcett. She was Nationalist candidate for governor.

Other losing nominees were Rosemarie Torroni of Barberton, lieutenant governor candidate; Bonnie Brown of Columbus, attorney general; Linda Shackelford of Middletown, auditor; Sharon English of Mansfield, secretary of state, and Sally Schmick of Mariemont, treasurer.

County officials will be installed in office today by Franklin County Auditor Frank Dunn.

This year's school in self-government is being held at Capital University. The school is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. There are 980 high school junior girls attending the week-long session, which ends Sunday.

GRAY LADIES CAPPED. Mrs. Marie Hays kneels before Mrs. Helen Bemis to receive her cap as a qualified "Gray Lady" at a ceremony attended by 300 Tuesday night at the First Methodist Church. Some 87 members of the Gray Ladies, out of 100 eligible, received their caps as a symbol of completing study time and service at City Hospital to qualify. Mrs. Hays is chairman of the volunteer service group, sponsored by the Red Cross, and Mrs. Bemis, a nurse, was instructor.

Presbytery Decides On Trial Under Church Law For Pastor

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Cincinnati Presbytery has decided to hold a trial under church law of a controversial pacifist minister who won't pay his taxes.

The Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin is the center of the presbytery action, announced Tuesday night without other comment from church leaders.

The presbytery said its leaders want to determine if the minister is right or wrong in his stand against taxes.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin says he hates war, and because income taxes help pay for weapons of war, he won't pay.

He said he has refused to pay part or all his tax since 1949.

The minister served five months in federal prison last year for refusing to answer an Internal Revenue Service summons to talk over his taxes.

His church, West Cincinnati-St. Barnabas, a combined and integrated Presbyterian Episcopal congregation, welcomed him back.

Presbytery church leaders did not say what the trial procedure would be, nor did they indicate what action might be taken if the Rev. Mr. McCrackin is found guilty.

The presbytery, representing 72 southeast Ohio churches, said a commission was named to investigate these charges against the minister.

He refused to file income tax returns or pay tax.

"His repudiation of a particular law has led to repudiation in the process of law."

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin "claiming that he has acted out of conscience in his disobedience of civil authority, is now encouraging others to likewise refuse to pay their income tax or file income tax reports."

The second charge, involving process of law, apparently refers to the minister's passive resistance during his U.S. District Court trial.

The Rev. Mr. McCrackin declined to take any part in the trial. He forced court aides to carry him in and out of the courtroom and refused to aid court-appointed attorneys in his defense.

Postal Driver's Reaction Tested In Safety Check

John Fisher, a parcel post driver, served for a reaction test held Tuesday afternoon on Maryland Ave. as part of the Post Office's safety program.

The test was conducted by Colin Brown, safety assistant, aided by Leroy Fotheringham, Post Office custodian.

Fisher was checked to see how quickly he could react in applying the brakes for an emergency stop. A mechanical detonator attached to the truck simulates an emergency. It marks a spot on the pavement and when the driver hits the brake, another detonator is fired.

At 20 miles an hour, Fisher traveled 18 feet 7 inches in the six to seven-tenths of a second before he hit the brake. He then traveled 22 feet 8 inches before stopping, making a total of 41 feet 3 inches from the emergency signal.

At 25 miles an hour, he traveled 21 feet in the seven to eighth-tenths of a second before applying the brake, then traveled 30 feet before halting for a total of 51 feet from the first detonator charge.

Brown said the demonstrations are held for the public to show how far a vehicle travels before stopping. Jud English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club, also took the test in his car.

Democrats Finish Plans For Annual Picnic, Outing

Plans for the annual picnic and outing of the East Liverpool Democrat Club Aug. 7 at Arrowhead Lake Park in Columbiana were completed Tuesday night at a meeting in the Washington Building.

The program will begin at 1, with a dinner featuring fried chicken slated for 2. James V. Flasco, chairman, said the picnic will be held regardless of the weather because the park has shelter for 1,500.

Don Gosney of Columbiana, county party chairman, is making arrangements to secure a congressman as speaker. Afternoon and evening entertainment is being arranged. Games will be featured for children, with prizes for winners.

Mike Sweeney and James Ferlino are co-chairmen of the picnic, aided by Frank Bennett, Walter Hornbeck, Rudy Halpate, Albert E. Kittridge, Tom Ferlino, Dan McKeever and Sharon Quigley.

The club also discussed plans to incorporate as a non-profit Ohio corporation and named Flasco to handle the arrangements. The next meeting will be Tuesday, July 19.

America's first great invention was the cotton gin. Eli Whitney devised this great labor-saving machine in 1794 while visiting a plantation on the coast of Georgia.

Ruritan Club Honors Its Retiring President

ROGERS — Ralph Wolford, retiring president, was honored at a dinner held by the Ruritan Club Monday night at the Methodist Church. He was presented gifts.

Bob Williamson, vice president, presided. The club voted to purchase a 50-star flag for the community hall flag pole.

The club also voted further assistance to the local Cub Scouts. It was reported club baseball equipment, together with new bats and balls, is being used by a newly organized baseball team for boys 9 to 14.

A family picnic will be held during July at East Palestine City Park. Arnold Green is in charge of arrangements.

Midland Plant House Action Union Elects Set On Health Plan For Aged

George VanKirk, 403 5th St., Wellsville, received a second term as president of Steelworkers Local 1269 of the Mackintosh-Hemphill Division of the E. W. Bliss Co. during an election Tuesday at the Steelworkers Hall in Midland.

VanKirk has worked at Mackintosh about 20 years. Others elected for two-year terms beginning July 1 were Walter Hornbeck of East Liverpool, vice president; William Stewart of Midland, recording secretary; Clifford Cochran of East Liverpool, financial secretary; Sherman Phelps of East Liverpool, treasurer; Ernest Miller of East Liverpool, guide; Thomas Howard of Beaver Falls, guard; Emeric Davis of Midland, compensation man, and Clyde Piquet of Ohioville, insurance representative.

Some 288 out of 335 members of the local voted, or an 86.3 per cent of the membership.

Tellers were Samuel W. VanDyne Jr., George Ronesburg, Peter Petrosky, Charles Simmons and Guy Looman.

Glenmoor Ruritans Plan Member Drive

Plans for a membership drive were outlined at a meeting of the Glenmoor Ruritan Club Monday night at the Calcutta Grange Hall.

About 20 attended the meeting at which Dale Thompson screened slides of Thailand, Howard Adrian, president, was in charge, Floyd Lower of Lisbon was a guest.

A "Ladies Night" program will be held at the next meeting July 18.

The first American-made upright piano was built by John Isaac Hawkins in Philadelphia in 1801.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House takes up today a state-federal program of health aid for a limited group of needy and near-needy older persons.

Indications were the measure will be passed today and sent to the Senate, where proponents of a much broader health benefit program for the aged hope to revamp the measure to fit their own ideas.

No such broadening can be attempted in the House. It is taking up the bill under procedures which allow four hours of debate, no amendments, and a take-it-or-leave-it vote.

The minimum health measure on which the Ways and Means Committee agreed after eight weeks of disputes is estimated to cover perhaps 1½ million persons. Benefits might actually go to from 500,000 to one million in a given year.

In coverage, as in many other ways, the proposal differs radically both from a social security-financed proposal backed by labor unions and many Democrats, and from the plan sponsored by the Eisenhower administration. Each of these would cover an estimated 10 to 12 million persons.

Under the proposal before the House, each state could set up a new category under its public welfare program. It would include older persons not destitute of means for ordinary living but unable to pay heavy medical bills.

Each state would decide how much to provide in benefits for such persons, up to maximums including 120 days hospitalization, unlimited doctors' services, $200 worth of drug and $200 worth of laboratory fees.

The federal government would contribute, according to the resources of each state, 50 to 65 per cent of the cost. The price tag has been put at about 195 million dollars federal, 147 million state funds annually.

Representative Of Doctors Named

Dr. Paul Beaver of Leetonia was elected representative of the Columbiana County Medical Society to a state conference on problems of the aged at a meeting of the society Tuesday night at the Hotel Wick at Lisbon.

Dr. Beaver, also a member of the county committee on problems of the aged, will attend the state session at Columbus in September.

About 29 attended the dinner meeting at which a scheduled screening of a film on gastrointestinal problems could not be held because of lack of equipment.

Routine business was aired with Dr. William Horgan of East Liverpool, president, in charge. Dr. Horgan, Dr. Fred Banfield and Dr. Virgil Hart of Salem will attend a 6th Councilor District meeting tonight at Congress Lake.

The next society meeting will be Sept. 20.

PRESTONBURG, Ky. (AP) — Wilbur Raymond Joy, 57, developer of the widely used Joy coal loader, died of a gunshot wound Tuesday. He founded the Joy Coal Bit Co., maker of mining equipment.

Three Men Held By FBI In Theft At Supermarket

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Three men—two captured here and the third in Chillicothe Tuesday—are being held by the FBI in connection with a supermarket robbery in Portsmouth.

E. D. Mason, special agent in charge of the FBI's Cincinnati office, said William Arnold Bailey, 36, and James Dale Davis, 37, were arrested here, while William Harrison Jewell Jr., 18, was nabbed in Chillicothe. A federal warrant in Portsmouth charged the men with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution for armed robbery.

They are being held in connection with the three-man robbery of Schaefer's Supermarket in Portsmouth June 13.

When arrested, Bailey and Davis were armed with 38-caliber revolvers loaded with 200-grain "dum-dum" bullets, the FBI said. The standard police "dum-dum" weighs only 150 grains, Mason said.

The FBI said Bailey and Davis also are parole violators in Ohio. Hometowns of the three were not available.

Enjoyment of Quality

"Great meal, Dear! Everything tasted so good!"

When the mgn of the house sits happily back, lights his smoke, looks contentedly at his wife and says, "Great meal, Dear!" it's double compliment. He's paying tribute not only to her good meal preparation but also to her wise shopping. Contentment with good things to eat. Fine meats, for example, the most important of all food purchases, "make" any meal. And nothing you can eat beats Loblaw meat! When 25c of each food dollar goes for meat, being sure of dependable quality is both necessary and economical. Throughout all food departments, Loblaw caters strictly to genuine good-ness. And that's something women responsible for family meal preparations appreciate. They tell us so, in many different ways. And it adds up to this... enjoyment of quality at the dinner table usually starts at Loblaws.

Building Of Boosters To Get Man To Moon Is Progressing

WASHINGTON (AP)—The job trip for the first spacemen to arrive of building big enough boosters to get man to the moon is progressing well, the House Space Committee reported today, but little is being done to see how he can stay there.

The indications are it will be something less than a pleasure tion is intense, and an accidental look at the sun would lead to instantaneous, permanent blindness. These hazards of lunar living were cited by the committee in a report backing a plan by the Army Corps of Engineers to build a research facility to simulate conditions on the moon.

The facility would cost six million dollars and take three years to build, the committee said.

The committee said big booster projects to provide the thrust for moon trips have top priority ratings. But neither the Defense Department or the National Aeronautics and Space Administration has a single program to simulate conditions a moon explorer will face, it added.

The space program for the next 10 years, as outlined by NASA, calls for manned orbital flights around the moon by the end of the decade. No manned landings on the moon are contemplated before the early 1970s.

Midland Alumni Group Sets Dance

The 4th annual dinner-dance of the Midland Alumni Association will be held Saturday, July 2.

The dinner will be held in the Steelworkers Hall at 6 p. m. and dancing to the music of the "Four Wheels" orchestra will follow at the Serbian National Home.

Guests will include School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell, Principal William A. Walters of Lincoln High School, their wives, and Nick Vuckovich, president of the 1960 Lincoln graduating class and his guests.

Next year's officers will be elected. The dinner will be served by Court Midland 653, Catholic Daughters of America.

Additional plans for the event will be made at a meeting Sunday at 1 p. m. in the high school art room or Music Room. Atty. Ralph Scaleria is president.

Ferro's Expenditures To Total $2,500,000

Directors of the Ferro Corp. at Cleveland today voted funds totaling more than $2,500,000 for expansion of the firm's facilities on the West Coast, it was announced by Robert A. Weaver, chairman.

The major portion was assigned to the Ferro Fiber Glass Division's plant in Huntington Beach, Calif., for the installation of fiber glass production equipment.

The funds also provide for the construction of a new plant for the company's Refractories Division which will manufacture several lines of refractory specialty items now produced by Ferro plants in Ohio and Texas.

The concern operates two plants in East End.

Group In Plane Told Of Valley's Potential

The natural resource wealth of the Ohio Valley as an attraction for future growth was expressed today by Don Potter, president of the Monongehela Power Co., to a group of 26 security analysts slated to fly in a plane tour of the valley including this area.

The trip from Morgantown to Parkersburg and up the river to the northern panhandle was scheduled this afternoon. The analysts, representing some of the nation's largest investment and banking houses, are to spend the night at the Rolling Rock Country Club in Western Pennsylvania.

The Soviet Union, Brazil, and the United States control two-thirds of the world's forest area.

Double Jeopardy Rears Its Head In Intoxication Case

If a man appears in court intoxicated on Friday morning on an intoxication charge and then is arrested by police again that same afternoon on the same count, is it all a continuation of one episode or two separate cases?

The question faced Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff today, but the possibility of "double jeopardy" was eliminated when the defendant admitted to additional drinking between the time of his court appearance and his second arrest.

The question was posed in the case of Charles Moore, 622 Jackson St. Fined last Friday morning on an intoxication charge, he was charged with a new offense when police served him with a warrant in Rural Ln. on an assault charge that afternoon.

Obviously fearing a case of two court appearances on a single offense, the judge questioned the defendant about his drinking after he left court. After Moore's admission, he imposed a fine of $10 and costs.

The assault charge, filed by a neighbor, Sam Everhart, was dismissed because the complaining witness failed to appear.

Haircuts To Go Up

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The price of haircuts will be increased to $2 here Thursday. The increase, from $1.75, was voted Tuesday night by Barbers' Local 105, which has 400 members in Akron and Cuyahoga Falls. The local also voted to raise the price of shaves from $1.25 to $1.50.

Final Pre-Convention Phase

Kennedy, Johnson Aides Hurl Can't Win Charges

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP)—Supporters of the two leading prospects hacked away at each other today with can't-win charges in the final pre-convention phase of the contest for the Democratic presidential nomination.

It's the type of political infighting that is more effective in campaign workers' private contacts and meetings of small groups than in the speeches and statements intended for public consumption.

Backers of Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.) were contending that Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas couldn't win in November even if he should get the nomination—which they say they are confident he won't.

The Kennedy people find it is sufficient from their standpoint to inquire if interested Democrats believe the Texas senator can carry New York, California and other large states. Their implication is that he can't.

Johnson's associates take the same line, with variations. Their first question when they arrive in any state is: "Can Kennedy carry your state?" They don't bring up the subject of Kennedy's Roman Catholic religion, but the implication is there.

The Johnson men—and the Senate leader himself for that matter—also are peddling the political line that Kennedy, a youthful appearing 43, hasn't the experience and maturity to handle Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other pressing world problems.

While politicians generally think this is an effective gambit, many of them believe that it may be too late in the day to head the Massachusetts senator off from the nomination.

Kennedy's delegate strength has particularly impressed some of the supporters of Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.). Their confidence seems to have dwindled that there will be a convention stalemate which might permit the man from Missouri to surge forward as a compromise candidate.

Johnson's men write Symington off as no serious threat. They appear serenely confident that within a short time after the convention gets under way they will have former president Harry S. Truman on their side.

They think Eleanor Roosevelt, who supports Adlai E. Stevenson, couldn't have been more correct—despite Truman's denial—when she said that Truman really favors Johnson and not Symington.

Truman reiterated in New York Tuesday that "Stuart Symington is my candidate and the only man I'm interested in now."

But despite Truman's insistence that he never deserts a candidate, Johnson supporters like to emphasize his use of the word "now," and argue that if Symington falls by the wayside, Truman won't be long in joining their cause.

Truman's chief value is that the party pros like him and might listen to him if a touch-and-go situation arrived. If he teamed with House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), who is plugging Johnson, the Texan would have back-room manipulators of the first order.

Architect Departs To Visit Europe

Architect James Nessly Porter of Cain Heights left New York City by plane Tuesday afternoon to spend nine weeks in Europe.

He will spend the first week in Germany interviewing German architects as prospective Mellon professors for the Department of Architecture at Carnegie Tech at Pittsburgh, where he is an associate professor of architecture.

He will give talks on contemporary American homes to architectural students at the Berlin Technical Institute on July 7 and 8. The remainder of the time will be spent in France at the Palace of Fontainebleau School of Fine Arts, studying city planning of the present and the past. The Fontainebleau School is sponsored by the French government for practicing American architects and teachers.

Hints Soviet Bases

WASHINGTON (AP)—There are reports that Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev may try to have Soviet missile and submarine bases established in Cuba, says Rep. Clarence J. Brown (R-Ohio). The Blanchester congressman did not say where he got his information but said it came from "good authority."

Ohio Patrol Third

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—The Ohio Highway Patrol placed third with a score of 1,142 in the 22-caliber pistol team shooting event in the first annual invitational police shooting match sponsored by points. The Illinois State Police Tuesday won the event with 1,153 out of a possible 1,200 points.

Youth, 16, Killed In Accidental Shooting

CAMBRIDGE, Ohio (AP)—David Dolan, 13, of nearby Buffalo, fired a gun into a pond. The bullet ricocheted off the water and hit Bobby Scrappansky, 16, of Buffalo, in the chest, killing him.

That's what officials said happened Tuesday as they ruled the death at Black Pond accidental.

Braves Go On Warpath, Scalp San Francisco Twice, 9-6, 2-1

VERNON LAW Can Thank Roy Face.

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer The diagnosis was wrong. Those San Francisco Giants weren't suffering from Rigneyitis after all. If owner Horace Stoneham hoped to jog his club back to life when he replaced manager Bill Rigney with head scout Tom (Clancy) Sheehan last weekend, he neglected to let the Giants in on his motive. They've looked just as bad for Sheehan as they did for Rigney—only quicker. It took the Giants 56 games under Rig to lose three in a row this season, but they matched that slump in just four games under Clancy. They tumbled 5½ games off the pace in the National League race in a two-night doubleheader loss at Milwaukee Tuesday night. The sweep, 9-6 and 2-1 in 12 innings, moved the second-place Braves within 3½ games of front-running Pittsburgh. The Pirates defeated St. Louis 3-2 as reliever Roy Face saved Vern Law's 11th victory, tops in the majors. Cincinnati cracked Los Angeles 6-4. Last-place Philadelphia beat Chicago's Cubs 7-6 in 13 innings and led 7-5 in the second game of the two-night pair when the current suspended play after eight innings. In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated Detroit 6-0 behind Whitey Ford's four-hit pitching and Mickey Mantle's two home runs for a half-game lead over Baltimore. The Orioles lost 4-3 at Chicago. Cleveland defeated Washington 5-4, and Kansas City beat Boston 11-7 as Bud Daley, the AL's top winner, put away his 10th victory. Sheehan ironically, has followed the same pattern that made Rigney bait for second guesses—shifting Orlando Cepeda from first back to the outfield and using starting pitchers as relievers. Willie Mays, Cepeda and pinch-hitter Dale Long each homered in the opener—but Mike McCormick and relievers Billy O'Dell and Billy Loes gave up just as many to the Braves' Del Crandall, Hank Aaron and Joe Adcock. Adcock's two-run shot off Loes that clinched it as Milwaukee came from behind with four runs in the fifth and hung the loss on O'Dell (2-7). In the second game, Sheehan called on ace starter Sam Jones for relief in the 12th and the Braves tagged Sad Sam (9-6) with the loss. Al Spangler's one-out bunt single, a wild pitch, a walk and Red Schoendienst's single did it. Bob Buhl (7-3) won it with three innings of shutout relief. The Pirates, like the Braves, gained their seventh victory in eight games after scoring twice in the fifth against Bob Gibson (0-1). Singles by Bill Mazeroski, Bill Virdon and Dick Groat, who Ernie Banks of the Cubs jumped into the major league home run lead by hitting his 19th and 20th in the first game. A two-out single by Tony Curry decided it and defeated reliever Glen Hobbie (6-9). The second game, to be completed tonight, was played under protest by the Cubs when the Phils took the lead with two unearned runs in the fifth. Cub Manager Lou Boudreau protested when Tony Gonzalez was allowed to score from first after a fan picked up a wild peg by Chicago second baseman Don Zimmerman. St. Louis 000 100 001—2 8 0 Pittsburgh 001 020 00x—3 7 2 Gibson, Broglia (7), Duliba (8) and Sawatski; Law, Face (9) and Burgess. W—Law (11-2). L—Gibson (0-1).

Face Saves Law's 11th Victory, 3-2

The win was the seventh straight for Manager John Andrasen's nine, which continues undefeated in the County-City League. Dickey injured his arm two years ago and was unable to pitch for a while, but Tuesday he went the distance, fanned 10 batters along the way and scattered six hits.

The Cox-Merchants outfit gave Dickey all the working room he needed by scoring seven big runs in the second inning. Dickey shut out Lawrenceville until the sixth, then gave up two runs and one more in the seventh.

Ron Pugh was the losing pitcher and yielded seven hits. Centerfielder Bob Gessford, Cox's lead-off man, had a perfect night at the plate, stroking two singles in two trips and scoring a pair of runs.

Wint Dunlevy, Cox's hard-hitting first baseman, and catcher Jim Cronin also connected for a pair of safeties. Bob Hobbs smashed a triple for the only extra base hit of the game and added a single to pace Lawrenceville at the plate.

Lane Says Bonus Baby Has Fast Ball, Good Curve

CLEVELAND (AP) — Sam McDowell, the Cleveland Indians' $75,000 bonus baby from Pittsburgh, took a workout at Municipal Stadium Tuesday and quickly impressed General Manager Frank Lane. "Sam has the fast ball, but he also has a good curve," explained Lane. "I like to see that. You find a lot of young pitchers with good fast balls. Many of them don't have the loose wrist you need to snap off a curve." McDowell, a 6-foot-5 left-hander, said he hopes to be back with the Indians in two or three years. "If hard work helps I might make it sooner." Sam said he will return to Pittsburgh today, pack his bags and report to Cleveland's Lakeland farm club in the Class D Florida State League Monday. "I'm anxious to get going and start getting that experience I need," he explained. "I plan to play winter baseball, too. That may speed things up a bit." McDowell, 17, signed with the Indians last week.

Braves Pitching Staff Is Rounding Into Form

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Milwaukee pitching staff has rounded into form with steady work and the Braves are rolling in an all-out bid to overhaul the front-running Pittsburgh Pirates.

The second-place Braves got some more fine pitching performances and moved to within 3½ games of the Pirates Tuesday night, sweeping a two-night doubleheader from the San Francisco Giants, 9-6 and 2-1 in 12 innings. "We're getting the pitching we knew we had," Manager Charlie Dressen said after Milwaukee's fourth straight victory and seventh in the last eight games.

MEN'S WEAR ON THE DIAMOND

Just Can't Afford It

Taxes May Run Too High For Another Title Fight

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson have a problem that should happen to everyone. They would like to fight again within 90 days and earn maybe a million bucks apiece. But they may not be able to afford it this year because of the tremendous tax bite.

The two young heavyweights, renowned champion Patterson, and dethroned Johansson, may have earned record purses of a million dollars each for their second fight Monday night.

So the answer to whether there will be a rubber match this year most likely will be furnished by their lawyers and financial advisers.

The explosive fight, in which Patterson regained the title by flattening the Swede in the fifth round, lured 31,892 paying fans and $824,891 to the Polo Grounds. Irving Kahn, the president of TelePrompTer which handled the closed circuit television, movies and radio, said the extras will gross about $3,000,000. Of this, he said optimistically, the fighters should collect between $800,000 and $900,000 each in addition to $175,000 each from the gate receipts.

Gene Tunney set an all-time high of $990,445 for his second fight with Jack Dempsey at Chicago in 1927, an era in which the tax bite was mild compared to what it is today.

At separate press conferences Tuesday, Johansson and Patterson said they would like the third fight within 90 days. Naturally the promoting Feature Sports, Inc., was more than anxious to oblige. Patterson, elated at becoming the first former heavyweight king to regain the crown, said he had a contract for a third fight with Ingemar and intended to fulfill it. "If I should win," he said, "I would like to negotiate with other contenders, possibly (Sonny) Liston.

Liston, the hottest and heaviest hitter among the contenders, meets Zora Folley of Chandler, Ariz., at Denver July 18. Liston is from Philadelphia. "I want the return," said Johansson, 27, who suffered the first defeat of his pro career. "Patterson was fresher and stronger this time. He caught me with a good punch and that was that. Maybe next time it will be different. I always said anything can happen in a fight. This time it happened the better for me. The next time it can be my turn."

What did he think he did wrong in the fifth round when he was knocked down twice by left hooks, the last time for the count?

"I think I was a little low (meaning with his hands)," he said. "I must have thought he was going to the body. And I kept my chin up a little high."

Why didn't he storm after Patterson in the second round when he appeared to have hurt Floyd with a high right to the head? "He was just trying to look bad," said Ingemar. (Patterson confirmed this). "I was pretty sure

Kuenn, Temple Combine To Nip Senators In 5-4 Victory

Grant Checks In With 13th Win Over Nats

CLEVELAND (AP)—Now that their leg injuries are healed, two "old pros" may be set to get the Cleveland Indians on the right foot again.

With Harvey Kuenn and Johnny Temple delivering in accustomed style, the Indians shaded the Washington Senators 5-4 Tuesday night. Kuenn had three hits, including a two-run homer in the first inning. Temple made two hits, one of them a six-inning double which drove in the tying and winning runs.

That uprising made Jim (Mudcat) Grant the winning pitcher against the Senators for the 13th straight time in his major league career. Against the rest of the league, Grant has only a 12-19 mark.

But Grant was far from effective against his cousins as they whacked him for three home runs and had him down 4-3 when he was removed for a pinch-hitter in the sixth. After the Indians went ahead by a run, Johnny Klippstein came on and hurled three scoreless innings to save Grant's triumph.

Kuenn, moving up in the averages with 7-for-10 in his last three games, now is hitting at .292. Temple, just returning to his usual second base spot, is hitting only .257.

The Indians broke on to in the first inning when Temple singled and Kuenn powered the ball over the left field fence for his third homer of the season.

The Senators' Dan Dobbek cracked a solo blast in the second inning. After the Indians added another run in the fourth on singles by Johnny Romano and Woodie Held and a sacrifice fly by Grant, the Senators scored a run in the fifth on pitcher Pedro Ramos' homer.

Jim Lemon's single and Earl Battey's home run in the sixth put Washington in front 4-3.

But in their half of the inning the Indians scored twice on a walk to Romano, a single by Held and Temple's double inside the third base line.

Incidentally, Romano had three hits and Held a pair of singles. But Vic Power stretched his hitless string through 21 at bats, Jimmy Piersall was 0-for-5 and Tito Francona failed to get on in four at bats.

Ted Bowfield (2-2) pitches for Cleveland tonight against Bill Fischer (2-1) in the middle game of the three-game series. The Indians, winning only their third game in the last 11, remain in third place 3 games behind the league-leading New York Yankees.

Bradley Turning Out Big League Prospects

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—More famed for its basketball play, Bradley University quietly has established itself a pretty fair breeding ground for major league baseball prospects.

Three players recently were signed by major league scouts from this year's Braves baseball club, raising to 29 the number of Braves Coach Leo Schrall has seen go into professional ranks in 12 years.

Pitcher Harold Kunkel and outfielder-first baseman Bill Dixon were signed by the San Francisco Giants, reportedly for a $15,000 bonus each. The Cincinnati Reds latched onto outfielder Larry Pohlman for a bonus said to be around $5,000.

German Star Cracks Mark In 100-Meters

ZURICH, Switzerland (AP)—Armin Hary, West Germany's 23-year-old flash, Tuesday became the first man in history to clock 10 seconds flat in the 100-meter dash.

Hary served notice he's the one United States sprinters will have to beat in the Olympics in Rome in a seven-nation meet in Zurich Letzigrund Stadium — possibly the fastest track in Europe.

He entered the race at the last moment. "I didn't intend to run," he said happily Wednesday. "But Manfred Gerner, a teammate of mine was injured and he had to withdraw. So I decided to take his place."

Hary is no fluke. In 1958, he won the European 100-meter title, then was caught in 10 seconds in a meet in West Germany. But the German AAU disallowed the mark because of a slight decline in the track.

Banks Is Best Bet To Break Homer Mark

By GEORGE ESPEY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Ernie Banks isn't taking any predictions but right now it appears he's got the best chance of breaking Hack Wilson's National League mark of 56 home runs in a single season.

And the Chicago Cubs' shortstop is in a good position to challenge Babe Ruth's all-time record of 60.

Banks clubbed numbers 19 and 20 Tuesday night in a 7-6 loss to Philadelphia to put him ahead of the pace Wilson set in 1930 with the Cubs. That season Wilson belted No. 20 in the 59th game. Banks did it in the 55th game.

Banks, however, trails Ruth's record-setting pace of 1927 by three games not counting the second game of Tuesday night's two-night doubleheader which was suspended by National League curfew after eight innings with the Phillies leading 7-5.

Ruth hit his 19th and 20th homers in the 52nd game that year. Ten of Banks' homers have come this June, his largest output in a single month in his seven years in the majors.

He explained this by saying that his timing is coming around much better.

"I'm swinging at better balls than I did the first part of the year," he added. "I'm realizing, just trying to meet the ball and get a base hit. When I try to hit it out of the park I sometimes take my eye off the ball and do a lot of things wrong."

The National League's most valuable player two years running (1953-59), Banks politely shrugs off questions about breaking records.

"You've got to be lucky," he says. "You've got to hit a lot of homers in August and September. But I think someday Ruth's record will be broken."

The 29-year-old infielder leads both leagues in homers and runs batted in, 58.

Ohio Cagers Set To Meet Indiana

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—Some of Ohio's high school basketball greats are working out this week in preparation for Saturday night's third annual game with Indiana's all-star scholastic squad at Fort Wayne.

Ohio, led by Middletown's great Jerry Lucas, won the inaugural game of the interstate series two years ago, but the Hoosiers triumphed in 1959. Each game has attracted a full house of some 8,000 fans.

Paul Walker of Middletown is coaching the Buckeye all-star squad, which will play a warmup game Friday with standouts from this area.

Making up the squad are Ray Brown of Dayton Roosevelt, Ray Wolford of Toledo Scott, Wayne Lundy of Cincinnati Western Hills, Bob Patton of Martins Ferry, Gary Bradds of Jamestown Greenview, Jim Johns, of Van Del, Al Thrasher of Salem Local, Ted Day of Xenia, and Gerry Tibbs of Middletown. A tenth member will be selected from the area all-star quintet.

Ilene Simms with a 791 and Jo Ann Pfister with a 352.

The team award was won by the Crestview Archers with a five-man total of 3,447.

Former Auto Dealer Held For Grand Jury

County Judge James L. MacDonald Tuesday at Lisbon held William J. McLaughlin, 27, of Shadyside Ave., East Liverpool, for the Grand Jury under $1,000 bond, on a charge of giving false information to obtain a certificate of title to a motor vehicle.

McLaughlin, a former used car lot operator, was cited by the State Highway Patrol over a month ago. The hearing was continued because the defendant entered a hospital with an illness.

McLaughlin was represented by Atty. George Aronson and posted bond for release. He waived preliminary hearing. The Grand Jury meets in September.

When a title charge was continued in Municipal Court Tuesday, McLaughlin was released again on his own recognizance, not on $1,500 bond as stated in the Review yesterday. Judge Samuel M. Cherstoff, who furnished the information on the bond, said he erred in stating that the court had "continued the former $1,500 bond" when in fact the defendant was released on his own recognizance.

Police Push Bid To Solve Record Theft

CHARLESTON (AP)—State, city and federal police officers tried again today for a start toward solving an estimated $368,000 robbery of the State Motor Vehicles Department.

The shocking theft from inside a big State Capitol building here might have strained some nerves, too.

The office of State Treasurer Orel Skeen indicated that Motor Vehicles Commissioner J. Marshall Holcomb had been urged to deliver cash on hand for deposit before the past weekend.

"The treasurer's office was closed on Saturday," Holcomb commented.

State Treasurer Skeen said, "We were open until noon Saturday and always have been."

Holcomb is a Republican appointee of Gov. Underwood; Skeen a Democrat who was elected to his post.

The cash haul was the biggest theft in West Virginia history. The state agency is in the midst of its annual peak business period—the issuance of new vehicle license plates.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation is in on the case because the theft involved $5,000 or more.

State Police Lt. E. L. Roush, however, has been placed in charge of the investigation. He has help from Supt. Hazen Fair, head man of the State Police; Charleston Police Chief Dallas Bias, and Capt. Dewey Williams of the detective bureau here.

Roush said, "We have reason to believe now that it could have happened Saturday night." It had been thought that the theft occurred Sunday night.

Jury Awards $10,000 In Land Appropriation

LISBON — A Common Pleas Court jury Tuesday awarded $10,000 to a Lisbon area couple in a land appropriation suit of the Ohio Highway Department for improvement of Route 164 south.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Lucas of R. D. 1 were awarded this sum after the jury deliberated 1½ hours.

The state had offered them $5,300.45, which included $3,446.50 for the land and $1,853.95 for damage to residue, but they refused.

The jury awarded $4,000 for the land and $6,000 for the damage.

Thief Takes $100 At Beauty Shop

Police today were investigating theft of $100 in currency and silver from the Ceramic Beauty Shop, 205 W. 5th St.

The theft was reported Tuesday by Clarence Gilbert, manager, who said a thief removed the money from a hiding place on the premises. Apparently the spot was known to the thief, as nothing else in the shop was disturbed, he said. There was no sign of forcible entry, officers said. The owner was listed as Clyde Silverthorne of Glenmoor.

The loot included $50 in rolled silver and the balance in bills, police were told.

Meanwhile, a small radio was listed as the only item of loot in

Norway Breaking Up Soviet Espionage Net

OSLO (AP)—A usually well informed paper, the Norwegian Journal of Commerce and Shipping, today reported that police are breaking up an extensive spy net controlled by the Soviet embassy.

Parade Group At Midland Seeks More Float Entries

Appeals for more floats and "Old-Timer" entries in the Midland July 4th parade are being made by the Midland Fourth of July Committee after a meeting Tuesday evening.

According to Burgess Eli Corak, chairman, at least four more floats are needed to balance the parade. Nine floats have been entered and a last-minute rush is anticipated.

An appeal for more floats has been made since several organizations will not participate this year and higher float costs may prevent some from entering. Dead-line for entries was today.

Midland pioneers, or "Old-Timers", residents of the borough from 1906 through 1914, should contact Mrs. Malena Westlake as soon as possible at the borough secretary's office if they wish to ride in the parade.

Over 50 pioneers who rode in antique autos led the parade last year. John Reider and John Fante, parade co-chairmen, are in charge of pioneers.

The committee selected prospective judges for floats. They include Mrs. Eileen Paisley, Mrs. Clem Migliore, James Morrison, Rudolph Presutti and Capt. William H. MacBurney for senior floats and Mrs. Westlake, Pete Vuyakovich and School Supt. Ralph H. Jewell for junior floats.

In addition to the five high school bands announced earlier, the Wells High School Band has been invited. Reider reported numerous marching units have entered.

He said plans are complete for the flag-raising ceremonies at the band shelter in Lincoln Park immediately after the parade.

The double-header Junior Legion baseball game in the afternoon at Crucible Field will find Midland facing Ambridge and Beaver Falls.

A program schedule for the day's events is expected to be announced by Charles Henderson, program chairman, at the committee's meeting next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Borough Building.

Posters, listing times of events, will be placed in store windows. The evening program at the athletic field has been moved up a half hour. The six-team drill exhibition will begin at 7. The sixth team, that of the American Legion Post of New Sewickley, has been added to compete for cash prizes and trophies.

Bobby Caputo's combo will play for the street dance at 10 p. m. at the 7th St. School playground. Nick Carter, finance chairman, reported solicitation of funds progressing and commended workers at Crucible's Midland Works of whom 90 per cent have contributed.

Youngsters, who will enter decorated bicycles, may pick up number tags about July 1 or July 2 at the police station. There will be prizes in that category.

A bid was awarded the Basinger & Gifford Insurance Agency for coverage up to $5,000 property damage and up to $300,000 liability.

Hammondsville Post Delays Home Project

HAMMONDSVILLE — American Legion Post 742 Tuesday night agreed to suspend for the present plans for erection of a new post home, and authorized action for the sale of a 3.4-acre tract on the north fork of Yellow Creek.

Anyone interested in the land may confer with Bill Burton, commander, or Harry Springer, adjutant.

Final plans were made for a free public street dance Friday night at 8. There will be refreshments and entertainment for children.

Lewis Workman conducted devotions.

The city of Shreveport, La., was named for Henry Shreve, a designer of passenger-cargo boats.

Legion Auxiliary Elects Officers At Palestine Meeting

Mrs. Gertrude McLaughlin of Columbiana was elected president of the auxiliary of the Columbiana County American Legion Council at a meeting attended by 50 Tuesday at East Palestine Post 31. She succeeds Miss Elizabeth Chick of East Palestine.

Others named were Mrs. Helen Thompson of Salineville, first vice president; Mrs. Eileen Bird of East Liverpool, second vice president; Mrs. Wanda Shaw of Lisbon, secretary; Mrs. Ila Mae Bowler of East Palestine, treasurer; Mrs. Ann Needham of Salem, chaplain, and Mrs. Arthur Whitehead of Leetonia, historian.

Mrs. Ellen May McCoy of Lisbon installed the new officers. A program of piano selections and a comedy skit was presented. Lunch was served by the activities committee of the East Palestine post.

Those from East Liverpool were Mrs. Nora McLaughlin, Mrs. Frances Cusick, Mrs. Freida Skvarka, Mrs. Julia Baumgard and Mrs. Harriet Stull.

A picnic will be held in July at Salem.

Scout Cabinet Sets County Conference

Plans for a countywide Explorer Scout conference June 30 at Camp McKinley near Lisbon were made at a meeting of the Columbiana Council Explorer Cabinet Tuesday night at the camp.

Plans for the Explorer Field Day July 22 will be made, according to Robert Gray, executive. Members of units in the Cherokee and Shawnee Districts and advisors are to attend.

Posts 7, 21, 36, and 16 were represented at last night's meeting. Scheduled election of cabinet officers was postponed because of inadequate representation, Gray said.

The five largest states in area, in order, are Alaska, Texas, California, Montana, and New Mexico.

By JOHN CROSBY

Phil Silvers Heads Back To Broadway

Phil Silvers shot into Dinty Moore's celebrated corned beef and grog shop the other day and spoke roughly as follows: "There isn't much censorship in television today but I've had two or three ideas for specials which they've turned down. One idea is 'I Remember Minsky's' but they didn't care for it. I come from a nice family and I won't disgrace television but they have their problems."

John Crosby

If you try to have a logical conversation with Silvers, you're lost. The best thing to do is just try and follow along. You laugh immoderately during the conversation—or rather monologue—but your notes on this deathless interview are likely to be slightly tangled.

"NOTHING I DO is really planned," said Mr. Silvers, who is getting a pretty good claim to the title of funniest man in the world.

"I'll be doing a new show on Broadway next year and doing a few specials on television—but I don't see it. I'm grateful to television. I've never had that impact on anything. But there comes a time when you've got to do what you want to do and I want to do this show on Broadway. I want that discipline and fun again."

"It's going to be great to have a whole stage again. When you do television you have to stay on your marks, but when you get on stage you've got room to move around in."

"The show is named 'Do Re Mi' and it's being written by Betty Comden and Adolph Green from a story by Garson Kanin. It's about the hoodlum influence in the juke box business."

"In a Broadway show, you're gonna stand or fall on what you thought was good. There's no next week like a TV show. When you open, you open with what you think is the best and the funniest. There's nobody to censor you."

"IN BILKO, I did the best I could week after week but I had to make a settlement within myself. I tried my best but, if things didn't work out perfectly, I had to settle for second best. If I hadn't, I would have landed in Bellevue. But I lost a lot of discipline."

"On Broadway, every line, every gesture has to be right. There's no Boston in television. I get paid even if the first show or the second one isn't so good. But on Broadway, if the show doesn't come off, I've wasted six months."

Television, he said, is hard, hard work.

"Now, I walk around during the day with nothing on my mind," he continued, "you can't do that when you've got a television series. Once a Broadway show is in its place, it's a great joy to perform. It's like turning on a faucet."

"In 'Top Banana' I had a love affair with the audience. You can make them laugh loudly. You can make them laugh softly. I knew every breath of the play."

IT'S BEEN almost a sabbatical for Silvers as far as television is concerned. He's done only two specials and he'll do one more on June 30.

"I think I made a mistake on the last television spec I did," he confessed. "It was called 'The Slowest Gun in the West.'"

"With that title alone you know it isn't going to be serious. But I should have played it that way. I don't care any more what the audience pre-thinks. I was sure they pre-thought it was funny so I hammed it up. If I'd played it straight, it would have been funnier."

How about his next special? "It's called 'Summer in New York.' It'll show the advantages of New York in summer. We're taking Carol Lawrence out of 'West Side Story' and showing her the East Side. Like that. I'll be good. You watch."

"I'D BE a nut to drop television altogether. If you're an actor, you go where the most people can watch. But Broadway is easier. If you have a headache or a cold, you don't have to keep wondering what's the next line. You know it. Television is mostly business. Broadway is adventurous."

"The show represents a cycle. I was sent to Hollywood and my career stopped. Then Garson Kanin took me under his wing. He got me to the good parties where I entertained. He was my personal savior and now finally I'm doing something for him."

How Can I?

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. How can I, when making jelly, assure myself of a nice, clear mixture?

A. Add a teaspoon of glycerin to jellies 15 minutes before they are finished, and this contributes greatly to its clearness. If shavings of paraffin are put in the bottoms of the jelly glasses before pouring in the jelly, the paraffin will melt and rise to the top—clarifying and sealing the jelly.

Q. How can I clean some of my copper utensils?

A. Mix a cupful of flour and a tablespoon of salt to a paste with some vinegar, then rub this over the article with a soft cloth, and polish with a bit of flannel or chamois.

Q. How can I remove old varnish from furniture before revarnishing?

A. By using three tablespoons of washing soda to one quart of water, applying this with a rough cloth.

Blue Cross Hearing Set

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A public hearing has been scheduled in Cincinnati on July 11 or after on a proposed 28 per cent increase in Blue Cross hospital rates for 15 counties in southwestern Ohio. State Insurance Supt. Edward A. Stowell estimated the increase, if approved, would boost payments in the area—which includes Cincinnati and Dayton—by more than 10 million dollars annually. Stowell says he wants to determine whether the increases asked by Hospital Care Corp. are in excess of the general rise in living costs.

Veterans Reminded

On New Pension Law

A new veterans pension law becomes effective July 1, changing the method of paying pensions.

A. G. Bille, contact representative-in-charge at the Veterans Administration Office, 227 N. 5th St., Steubenville, said the basis of this new system is a sliding scale.

Those with the least amount of income will be able to draw the most pension. But here is another point that a great many veterans have been bringing to VA.

They ask, "Will there be any change in the basic requirements for a VA pension?" The reply Bille said is no. Under this new system starting July 1, there will be no change in the basic rules of eligibility for pension. You will need at least 90 days of active wartime service, you will need a discharge "other than dishonorable" and you must have a total and permanent disability, the same as always. There still will be income limitations, even though they're higher under the new system than the old. For full details contact the Veterans Administration Office.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Why in the world would guests who come to spend a few hours in a home be interested in what's in the medicine cabinet?

Several weeks ago I entertained some friends and one of the women apologized for breaking a jar of cold cream which was in the cabinet. She said: "I just opened the cabinet door and it fell out."

When I told my husband I could not understand why she had opened the cabinet door he said, "People ALWAYS do this and I will prove it to you." He rigged a little cellulose tape device on the cabinet door and showed me how to retape it after it had been detached.

Yesterday I had 12 women in for bridge. I checked the tape after each of eight women had been in the bathroom. To my horror I discovered the tape had been broken seven times! Can you tell me why this interest in other people's medicine cabinets? — DUMB-FOUNDED.

Dear Dunb-founded: Human beings are a complicated, unpredictable mixture of mysterious motivations. Why do they want the front of the bus, the back of the church and the middle of the road?

There are many reasons for opening a medicine cabinet in the home of a hostess. Most of them come under the heading of plain nosiness. One woman in 25 could be looking for aspirin. The other 24 are checking to see if it's orderly or if the family takes a lot of medicine and if so, what kind. Don't ask me why it should matter, it apparently does.

Generous Friend

Dear Ann: I have a girl friend who has a lot bigger allowance than mine (like four times as much). We are both 14 years old. At the end of the week I'm broke so she insists on buying the tickets to the movie and then she treats me to a soda or hamburgers. She also pays the bus fare for both of us.

I don't want this charity drive to end our friendship because we get along great together. I'm uneasy about her spending money on me because I have no way of paying her back. Thank you. — TOBY. P.S.: I am a girl.

Dear Toby: I'm happy you added that P.S. I had you figured for a boy.

Cut out the domestic aid program and tell your friend you appreciate her generosity but you no longer can accept it. Plenty of interesting places are free. Let her know she doesn't have to buy your company.

Three Solutions

Dear Ann: I married a man whose wife died six years ago. I think the world of him and we have been very happy together, except for one thing.

His daughter and her family will not come to visit us because this is the same house where she grew up and her mother died.

We must call on them at their homes since they refuse to set foot in this house.

I am sick at heart over this and my husband knows it. He says to ignore it but I can't.

I'm sure he is hurt as I am but he is a strong person and does not show it. What can I do? — N.A.

Dear N.A.: You can continue to punish yourself about something which is not your fault and which you cannot control or change.

Or you can be mature and accept the situation and continue to visit them.

The third alternative is to move into another house — although it hardly seems worth the trouble.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

West Virginia State Auditor Is Buried

CHARLESTON (AP) — Funeral and burial services were held today in neighboring South Charleston for Edgar B. Sims, the veteran state auditor who died after a long illness.

Sims suffered a stroke last March 6, was hospitalized here and died Monday after being in a coma the last few days of his life.

He served on the State Board of Public Works the past 27 years because of the office he held.

Honorary pallbearers at the funeral were members of the public works board.

Gov. Underwood directed that the State Capitol be closed today, except for the Motor Vehicles Department, which is engaged in the annual late rush for license plates.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures expected to average near or slightly below normal. Normal high 82 north to 85 south, normal low 59-63. Warmer Friday and Saturday, cooler Sunday and Monday. A few widely scattered showers Thursday and Sunday or Monday.

Practice Run For Campaign

Nixon's Latest Trip Seen As 'Shakedown Cruise'

By ARTHUR EDSON
ST. LOUIS (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon has wound up a four-day trip that took him deep into Texas and far up in the Dakotas.

And those who tagged along soon got the feeling that this was a shakedown cruise for the real thing, a practice run for the presidential campaign that is to come.

The travel arrangements encouraged this belief.

Here was Nixon in his own chartered, two-motored plane. It's the special executive job, with couches, desks and plenty of working space.

Here were a couple of dozen reporters travelling in another plane, landing just ahead of him as is usually done during a campaign.

Preparations were so good that at every stop a band was out to greet him.

Nixon hates to speak from a text. He thinks it comes between him and his audience. But when he had what he thought were major pronouncements, on agriculture and economic growth, he had his speech carefully written out.

That's the way he plans to do it when the campaign really gets rolling.

But it wasn't simply the physical arrangements.

Nixon still won't say he has the nomination locked up, although he did shyly confess Tuesday that if he were a betting man he might risk a little capital on it. He didn't say where he could find anyone to bet against him, or what the odds would be if he could.

But while Democratic hopefuls joust with each other Nixon can turn to such items as:

1. His vice presidential running mate. He refuses to give any names, or to comment on any names given him. But he has said he wants a man who is loyal, who is willing to work with him and who shares his thinking on foreign affairs. "Here," he said, "there must be basic agreement."

2. His keeping well informed on what the administration is up to. Once the nomination is in the bag, Nixon said Tuesday, he expects to be told of every major statement coming on. "Generally," he said, "we'll have pretty good coordination."

Possibly no politician of our time has been so adept at turning what could be a political disaster into a political asset.

The Venezuelan incident is a good example. Many a politician might consider this riot a damaging blow to his career. But Nixon refers to it in almost every talk. And as he explains how he was spit upon, and how his wife's pretty red dress was covered with spit, he invariably gets a sympathetic reaction.

This is what Nixon himself calls turning a minus into a plus.

Possibly the biggest surprise, though is in his treatment of Democrats.

In the old days no one whacked the Democratic party as soundly and as enthusiastically as Nixon.

Now, possibly because he covets and needs a lot of Democratic votes if he expects to win in November, he treats them almost tenderly.

That's why an Associated Press transmission error in his economic speech Tuesday was especially unfortunate.

Referring to administration critics, Nixon asked: "What sort of society are they proposing?"

It came out: "What sort of Soviet are they proposing?"

Nixon is doing no such name calling now. At this stage of the game at least, he's harsh mainly on Nikita Khrushchev and the Communists.

The deadly python has long teeth, but no poison fangs, and it kills its prey by coiling around and crushing it. It is strong enough to crush almost any toe.
